  - II. Mrs. Myers reviewed
- II. SIC Goal 2023-2024 (Mrs. Hayes)
  - I. We are in week 4 of our goal. Subtraction went better than addition which surprised us. There are about 12 students who have earned a stickers each week.
  - II. We have purchased Power Pens and cards to help with fact fluency in classrooms.
  - III. We are opened to having volunteers to help the
- III. PBIS (Mrs. Shelley and Ms. Jefferson)
  - I. We have our first PBIS event which is Truck or Treat on Halloween. Students are using points to purchase tickets to come to the event during the school day.
  - II. We need candy donations which can be dropped off at the front office.
    - i. We are expecting non-candy donations for students with allergies. We make bags for those students to give them.
  - III. The quarterly PBIS point contest is going strong across the school.

IV. Students are going to the Marlin Mall as a class to use PBIS points to get incentives.

IV. Upcoming Events

I. Fall Carnival-Friday, October 13th at 5-7 pm

V. Questions/Concerns

I. Mrs. Hazard mentioned how her students love Prize Patrol.

II. A few parents asked about the poverty level of our school compared other schools who received free breakfast/lunch.

- i. Mr. Ramirez asked about getting the food distribution again for WRES. Mrs. Bates explained how the Lowcountry Food Bank is the one who prioritizes which school gets the program each year. Mrs. Hazard said she knows someone at the LFB so she will reach out.
- ii. Mrs. Bates will reach out to someone at the district again to find out about how school qualify for the free breakfast/lunch program.
