Assistant Superintendent Sally Hacker Announces Retirement

GREENWOOD, IN (August 18, 2016) – Center Grove Community School Corporation Assistant Superintendent Sally Hacker has announced plans to retire, effective October 1, 2016. Her retirement was accepted by the Board of School Trustees at its August 18, 2016 meeting.

Mrs. Hacker currently oversees Human Resources, Curriculum and Special Education. She started her career in Center Grove 35 years ago as a teacher. She served as a middle school principal and Human Resources Director before being named Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum.

"Since my first day, Mrs. Hacker has been critical to me has a valuable member of our leadership team," said Dr. Rich Arkanoff, superintendent. "Sally's care and commitment to the staff and students of Center Grove is beyond compare. She will be deeply missed and impossible to replace!"

"Sally Hacker has had a tremendous, positive impact on Center Grove students and staff since she began here in 1981," said Adam Norman, president, Center Grove Board of School Trustees. "She has raised the bar of expectations at all levels of the corporation during her tenure. We will miss her knowledge and calm demeanor."

"The impact that Sally Hacker has had across this corporation over the past 35 years can be seen in virtually every facet of our school district," said Beth Heavin, co-president, United Teachers Association of Center Grove. "Her intelligence, professionalism, and desire to make Center Grove the absolute best place for its students, teachers, and employees raised the standards for others who followed her in each of the roles that she has held: teacher, coach, UTACG president, assistant principal, principal, Human Resource Director, and Assistant Superintendent."

Mrs. Hacker's current HR duties will be shifted to a new position, Executive Director of Human Resources. Center Grove is in the process of hiring this new person.
