Alexander Named President of the CGCSC Board of School Trustees

GREENWOOD, IN (January 11, 2018) – The Center Grove Community School Corporation Board of School Trustees appointed Scott Alexander to serve as Board President for 2018 during their first meeting of the year on Thursday, January 11, 2018.

Mr. Alexander replaces Jack Russell who will continue to serve as a board member. The Board also appointed Carol Tumey as its vice president and Rob Daniels as its secretary.

Alexander is a 1991 graduate of Center Grove High School and lifelong Center Grove resident. He joined Center Grove's Board of School Trustees in 2010. Prior to that he was a four-year member of the Center Grove Education Foundation. Alexander is a Purdue University graduate and is currently Vice President of Solutions for Theoris Services. He and his wife, Dana, have two sons who attend Center Grove schools.
