Public Comments

Public Comments

Meriam Castaneda- Shared her daughter has attended for four years and has been experiencing bullying and is not academically successful due to it. She had talked to the principal but nothing has been resolved. Her daughter got suspended due to another incident, by the principal and out of the four that were involved her daughter was the only one who got suspended. She filed to move her daughter to another school but it was denied. She requested for my daughter to be allowed to change schools.

Laura Garcia- Shared pictures of her son being burnt due to the children’s playground apparatus being too hot and no shading. Requested that shading be placed.

Report

Irma Aguila reported that Jessica Ortiz will be the new CSEA President. She would be retiring

Superintendent Report – Mr. Orin Hirschhorn

-COVID: Masking change. Masking recommended not required.

-Incident in Caruthers High School- Clarified that it was reported that it was a fentanyl overdose but that was not the case. Two students congested way too many gummies with THC. It is the compound that is marijuana. The same happened in Riverdale. One of the first responders reported that it was fentanyl and that is how the misinformation happened.

Monreal- Asked if bullying is going on why not the counselors working them with these issues. Mental health dollars need to be used.
