Have you read the book, viewed the program, or listened to the media in its entirety?

To what in the item do you object? (Be specific; cite page numbers and paragraphs, specific clips, etc.)

Is this objectionable material found throughout the book or is it an isolated occurrence within the material?

Did your child choose this material independently?

What do you feel might be the result of reading, viewing, or listening to this item?

What might be the educational benefit of this material?

For what age group would you recommend this item?

Are you aware of the professional or journal reviews given this material?

What do you believe is the theme and purpose of this item?

What would you like your school to do about this item?

Do not assign it to my child.

Please assign another approved title.

Withdraw it from all students within the school as well as from my child.

Make it available only to those who wish to use it.

In its place, what item of equal literary value would you recommend to convey a realistic picture and perspective of our society?
