

STEM EHS Behavior Expectations

	Classrooms	Cafeteria	Bathrooms and Hallways
Safe	- Follow all adult instructions, class routines and procedures including entering class and getting started - Once inside the classroom remain seated - Do not daisy chain extension cords - Keep your hands, feet and all other objects to yourself (Khfaooty)	- Wait in line for your turn - Be attentive and follow staff directions - Stay in your seat - Keep all food on your own plate - Use your inside voice	- Walk in a single file line and use your inside voice - Wait in line for your turn - One student per bathroom stall - Report problems (vandalism, etc.) - Do not prop main doors to keep them open - Do not open main doors for anyone, if someone is waiting (even if you know the individual) inform an adult
Honest	- Maintain integrity: do your own work - Do the right thing, especially when no one seems to be watching (Khfaooty)	Do the right thing, especially when no one seems to be watching	- Do your business & leave - Do the right thing, especially when no one seems to be watching
Accountable	- Complete all assigned tasks by the due date - Ask questions when in doubt - participate in your own learning - Come to class prepared to learn - Attend every class	- Clean up after yourself, this includes cleaning food from the table and drying up spills - Put trash in the trash can (Khfaooty)	- Go straight to your destination - Clean up after yourself - Wash your hands (Khfaooty)
Respectful	- Use appropriate words - Be mindful of your tone and body language - Ask the adult in the room permission to complete any action or task outside of class routines or procedures - Listen to and respect the opinions of others	- Exhibit good table manners - Do not touch or take other people's food - Keep your food on your own plate - Use your inside voice	- Respect each other's personal space - Use the restroom in a timely manner, others may be waiting - Keep your hands and feet to yourself (Khfaooty)
Kind	- Use positive words when speaking to others - Find opportunities to say something inspiring to others (Khfaooty)	- Use inside voice - Listen to and respect the opinions of others	Respect the privacy of others
Supportive	- Extend grace to each other as mistakes are made while learning - Celebrate each other's growth and success - Speak to an adult if you know someone is being teased or bullied	Listen to directions and follow expectations	Tell an adult if someone needs help, for example, they are in the bathroom crying

