A major assumption of Baylor’s financial aid program is that parents have an obligation to finance their children’s education to the extent they are able. This assumption lines up with the methodology and principles of the National Association of Independent Schools and School and Student Service for Financial Aid. The Financial Aid Committee will consider the financial resources of both biological parents, if living, before making an award. The Committee does not feel bound by the assertion, if it is made, that one parent is not legally responsible for educational expenses. If either natural parent remarries, we shall bear in mind the obligations of that parent to his or her new family. If the parent with custody remarries, we shall consider the resources of the stepparent. However, we shall bear in mind the obligations of the stepparent to his or her natural children.

It is possible, however, for Baylor to waive the noncustodial requirement in certain situations. The conditions under which we may consider waiving the noncustodial requirement are usually: 1. The noncustodial parent’s whereabouts are unknown, 2. The noncustodial parent has no contact, and has not had any contact, with the applicant over a period of years, 3. The noncustodial parent provides no financial support to the student.

This is a petition requesting that Baylor waive the noncustodial parent requirement regarding the submission of financial aid application forms. Upon receipt of this petition, along with the requested documentation, Baylor’s Financial Aid Committee will review and respond to the request. Please complete the entire form, answering all questions and submitting all requested documentation. Only complete petitions will be reviewed.

A separate file will be maintained by the school so please forward all information (completed copy of this form along with accompanying documents) to:
