

SoCal Native American Studies Model Curriculum Community Engagement Listening Circles

The California Native American Studies Model Curriculum (NASMC) will support the design and development of lesson plans, primary source documents, planning resources, teaching strategies, and professional development activities to assist educators in teaching about California Native American Studies. The NASMC is a statewide partnership effort funded through the California Department of Education. The San Diego County Office of Education will host several, virtual and in-person NASMC Community Engagement Listening Circles in Southern California. Perspectives and voices of California tribal community members, Native American youth, educators, and cultural bearers will lead the development of NASMC. During NASMC Listening Circles, participants will:

- learn about possible goals, vision, and outcomes of the NAS Model Curriculum;
- discuss their hopes for the NAS Model Curriculum; and
- provide guidance on the NAS Model Curriculum Essential Understandings and curriculum topics.
