SAFETY AND SECURITY MEASURE REVIEW – Chief Velez

- Current Status
 - Improvements are underway. We do look to be on track. Will have ongoing training for staff.
- Discuss Additional Measures/Strategies
 - Additional cameras
- Security Film
 - Additional tint on windows
- K9 Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Sweeny PD

*Capt. Patterson arrived at 5:09 p.m.

CAMPUS MAPS – Chief Velez

- CRG provided a new proposal for campus maps to be shared for collaborative responses (quote presented to members). Received grant money for the maps

*Mrs. Erikson arrived at 5:12 p.m.

*Ms. Polston arrived at 5:15 p.m.

MISCELLANEOUS

- We will have all types of drills - Chief Velez
- Chief Kibodeaux advised that Lake Jackson PD, as a supporting agency offers breach training, skill drills for responding, weapon proficiency in active shooter situation. No cost for the course or instruction.
- Mrs. Azbell asked about key fobs for other agencies. We have rock boxes with keys at all campuses for emergency responders to access. Need a set of master keys for reunification box. Fobs will not work if the District is locked down.
- Mrs. McGaughey asked if she should be able to see the dates of drills in the Raptor app. Chief Velez said there are announced and unannounced drills in the Raptor app. He will make sure that the unannounced are not showing up for staff on the Raptor app.
- Mr. Fuller advised that we need to set meeting dates for Fall, Spring and Summer 2024. Mrs. Kibodeaux will find dates and send out calendar invites for all.
- Capt. Patterson said they are up on their game as well.
- Capt. Patterson introduced Ms. Polston- Brazoria County Sheriff's Dept PIO. She will be attending meetings.
