Attendees:

Chris Lyons, Linard McCloud, Lollie Haselden, Kara Cieri, Kaitlin Tew, Melissa Shelton, Elizabeth Meadows, Crystal Neese

Principal Report:

- Reviewed the 5 priorities that Mr. McCloud has for OPES (Relationships, Community, Academics, Culture, and Safety)
- Reviewed the results of the Parent Survey that was sent to all parents
  - Overall great results
  - Liked having a comment section so parents could leave longer reviews other than only answers a few multiple choice questions
- Talked about a few ways to improve communications from school to parents
- School is looking into getting a buzzer system for the front door so during school hours people would have to be buzzed in to enter the building.

PTO Report:

- Gave out a PTO calendar of events that is also posted on Facebook at being sent out in the Pioneer Post
- April 20th there will be an evening event at OPES that will have dinner, a performance from the Drama Club, literacy activities, night hours at the book fair, and possibly a coding station.
- Got quotes for the kindergarten playground covers
  - Possibly going to install them over Spring Break
  - Working on other possible playground improvements and getting ideas from the teachers about what they think is needed
- Polar Plunge Coin Collection went well and raised $2,254 in total.
  - Popcorn party tomorrow for the hallway winners
- Special Olympics t-shirt sales are coming up to help with the transportation to Special Olympics for the athletes and teachers
- PTO Meeting is tomorrow morning at 8:00

New Business:

- Reviewed the focus of SIC
  - STUDENTS are our main focus
  - Work on keeping OPES the BEST school ever and help the administration keep improving where we need to improve and working towards our goals
- District Announcements
  - Tomorrow night there is a virtual screening of the movie “Shatter the Indifference” about cyber bullying
  - Still working on the facilities master plan and rezoning possibilities

Next Meeting:

Wednesday, March 15 at 7:30 a.m.

Adjourn at 8:35 a.m.
