

ELA Choice Board

Choose a recipe and follow the steps in sequential order with an adult.	Sit on your bed, look around the room and list 10 things you see. Write them down and put them in alphabetical order.	Email your teacher and let them know how your day is going.	Write 3 examples of a simile/idiom and illustrate. A simile is a comparison using like or as. An idiom is a phrase that does not mean what it says.
Read a book and record the adjectives, nouns, and verbs that you see.	Read a story and list the characters, setting, problem, and solution.	Create and illustrate 2 examples of alliteration. Alliteration is a phrase that has the same repeated beginning sound.	Spend 20 minutes on Edmentum.com - Login information in packet
Read a nonfiction book(s) and find the table of contents, captions, headings, and bold words. Record what you find and explain what it is used for.	Watch Brain Pop Jr video on Rhyming Words. While you watch, record the rhyming words you see. Write your own example of rhyming words.	Create a new cover for a book you read.	Think of your favorite book character. Write down four questions you would like to ask them.
Read a book then make a comic strip of your favorite part.	Read a book and summarize using this pattern: Somebody, Wanted, But, So, Then	Choose a character in your story and describe why or why not you'd like to have this character as a friend.	Make a T-Chart to show at least 3 different cause and effect examples.