

IV. Privacy and Confidentiality

The student information system adopted by the school allows parents to complete and update medical records on a yearly basis. The confidentiality of health information is kept private, and it is only shared with school administrators when necessary. The nurse will seek your consent before disclosing any information, except in cases of emergency. The school health team values the privacy and confidentiality of students' medical information and takes appropriate precautions to protect it.