Manage and protect your retirement plan account online

Security is important. You lock the door when you leave home, right? So why not lock up your retirement savings?

Prioritize cybersecurity

Keeping your account secure is a top priority for Lincoln, but it's a responsibility we share with you.

What can you do to help keep your savings safe? Visit LincolnFinancial.com/Register to register your retirement plan account online. This prevents unauthorized individuals from signing up in your place and gaining access to your savings.

Follow these security tips when setting up your online account:

- Choose a unique username, not your email address.
- Make your password strong by including lowercase and uppercase letters, numbers, and special characters.

Then log in at LincolnFinancial.com/Login to manage your account and monitor your progress. You'll find helpful resources and personalized tools to see if you're on track for your goals. Learn more about the features.

What else can you do?

It's not just your retirement plan account you want to secure — it's all your online interactions. To help you stay safe, we're providing this interactive cybersecurity brochure with videos and information on scam scenarios, how to identify threats, and ways to protect yourself online.

Working together to protect your data

Lincoln is committed to preventing cybercrime, but we need you to take some important steps to secure your data. To learn more, visit LincolnFinancial.com/Cybersecurity. If you need help registering your account, contact our Web Support team at 800-648-6424.
