V. Financial Aid Changes

The FAFSA application is usually released in October. The application will open Dec. 2023 for the 2024-2025 school year. This is the only year we are aware of that will be impacted. There are a lot of changes that the Federal Government is making to simplify the process. Dr. Rush and her team will give out more information as it becomes available.

If a student who was supposed to receive a refund did not, they will be in the next disbursement. The loans were not included in the first disbursement. The first loan disbursement was $547,797.14. The next disbursement is in November.
