Required Prompts

For the following prompts, please place your name at the top of your responses and forward it with your application to Catie Perich, Director of Enrollment Management at catieperich@gfs.org.

Short Answer: Garrison Forest's Core Values are: Be Authentic. Be Brave. Be Compassionate. Be Curious. Be Spirited. Choose one and describe how you embody this value in 50-100 words.

Scholarship Essay: Esse Quam Videri, "To Be Rather Than To Seem," has inspired our community since Garrison Forest School's founding in 1910. Using this motto as inspiration, share your hopes for the contributions you would make to the Garrison community and your aspirations for life after graduation in a carefully developed and organized 250-400-word essay.

Interview: Interviews of all Hyatt Hood Young '42 Scholarship applicants will be conducted by the Scholarship Committee on Friday, January 19, and Monday, January 22. The Garrison Forest School Admissions Office will contact you to select your preferred date and time.
