GSL CHAMPIONS!

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY – The Girls (9-0, 1st–GSL) swept Mt. Spokane (24-33) and University (19-41) last Tuesday at Liberty Lake Park to finish the regular season undefeated and claim the 2023 Greater Spokane League Girls Cross Country Championship for the 4th year in a row! Charlotte Cullen, Raegan Borg and Elle Vanning finished 1st-2nd-4th to pace the Panthers. Avery Parker was 10th, Adrienne Holden 11th, Addy Chaffins 12th, Ava Philips 14th and Samantha Pierce 16th for Mead. Congratulations to coach Dori Whitford and our Girls XC Team!

BOYS CROSS COUNTRY – The Boys (5-4, 5th-GSL) split with the Wildcats and Titans – losing to Mt. Spokane, 19-36 and defeating University, 17-46. Jaedon Phillips placed 3rd, Kyle Larsen 6th, Jonah Wiser 8th and Jovanny Lieb was 10th for Mead. Saturday at Wandermere Golf Course, Mead runners will be racing in the District 8 XC Championships for a chance to qualify at next weekend’s State Meet in Pasco. The race schedule is in the calendar.

At Saturday’s JV/Frosh XC Championships, Aaron Pooler (2nd) and Carter Edwards (3rd) were Mead’s top finishers in the Boy’s Freshman Race and Lindsey Mullins (9th) was the Panther’s top Freshman Girl. In the JV races, Dezlyn Lundquist (24th) was the first Panther to finish and Eneas Swimpkin (10th) paced the Mead Boys.

SLOW PITCH SOFTBALL – Monday, The Panthers won at Grandview, 18-2 in the District 5/8 Softball Tournament opener. Hope Murdock led Mead against the Greyhounds with three hits, a homerun and 3 RBIs. On Wednesday, in the Tournament semifinal, Mt. Spokane defeated Mead, 8-1. Saturday at Mead, the Panthers (15-4) lost a close one to the Ridgeline Falcons, 9-7 ending their season short of playing for a state tournament berth. Walla Walla defeated Ridgeline in the winner-to-state game.

GIRLS SOCCER – The Girls (5-4, 9-7, 5th – GSL 4th – 3A, RPI – 25th) split their final regular season games last week, defeating North Central, 3-0 and losing at Cheney, 1-0. Teryn Gardner, Rylee Vanos and Masyn Thielman scored goals against the Wolfpack and Sierra Mollotte had 2 assists. Mead is the #4 seed in the District 8 Soccer Tournament and plays MCC #1, Southridge tomorrow (Tuesday). Game time is 5:00 pm.

VOLLEYBALL – The Panthers (7-0, 12-2, 1st-GSL, RPI-5th) won twice last week, defeating Ridgeline 25-20, 25-13, 25-18 and winning at home over Cheney 25-10, 26-24, 25-13. With a win at North Central on Tuesday, Mead will earn the #1 seed to the District 8 Volleyball Tournament and host a first-round match on Tuesday, October 31st. Thursday the Girls are at Mt. Spokane in the Annual Cat Fight Volleyball Match.

FOOTBALL – Keegan Mallon rushed for 231 yards and four touchdowns in Mead’s (4-3, 4-4, 4th-GSL) 49-28 win over Cheney on Friday. Quarterback Jimmy Franhm ran for two 3rd quarter touchdowns as Mead pulled away in the second half. Matt McShane returned a punt for a touchdown in the 4th quarter for the Panthers. Battle of the Bell is this Friday at Union and Mead is the Home Team against the Mt. Spokane Wildcats...A pre-game TAILGATE starts at 5:00 pm on the grass north of the stadium.
