SHARED RESPONSIBILITIES FOR HIGH STUDENT ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

At Winnwood Elementary School, students, families, and teachers believe in working together and sharing responsibility for giving students the best possible education and a good start in life.

As a family, our responsibilities for the education of our children include:

- Providing physical and emotional encouragement by setting limits, giving love and listening
- Being consistent with expectations and holding children accountable for behavior and academic achievement
- Teaching values and respect for others by setting good examples
- Being enthusiastic about learning and school
- Reading to/or listening to my child read daily
- Supporting and participating in school programs, conferences, and activities
- Ensuring that my child has at least 95% attendance at school and arrives on time, ready to learn
- Providing a quiet time and place for homework

As students, our responsibilities for our education include:

- Being respectful, responsible and kind
- Respecting myself, my classmates, my parents, and all members of Winnwood Elementary School
- Coming to school every day on time, ready to learn, doing my personal best and working hard to get smarter
- Being responsible for items that need to go home and need to be returned to school
- Reading a lot every day
- Communicating with my family and teachers so they can help me be successful in school
- Taking care of school property including returning library books

As a school, our responsibilities for the education of our children include:

- Fostering creativity and critical thinking
- Holding children accountable for behavior and academic achievement
- Keeping family members informed and partnering with families to maximize student success
- Instilling and modeling responsible and respectful behavior
- Meeting students' individual needs
- Providing developmentally appropriate instruction for all students
- Providing a safe, respectful and positive learning environment
- Making learning enjoyable and challenging for each individual student
- Embracing diversity, respect, responsibility and life skills
- Being a culturally responsive educator
