May 21, 2012

At the May 21, 2012 school board meeting, the following took place:

- The school board approved the sale of 8% General Obligation Bonds. These funds will be used for renovation and general maintenance for all schools.

- First reading approval of the 2012-13 General Fund Budget in the amount of $149,278,588.

- The school board discussed naming in the new high school under construction at the corner of Mt. Vernon Church Road and Broad River Road. A committee comprised of citizens who have lived in the area for many years met and proposed that the new high school, scheduled to open in August 2013, be named Spring Hill High School.

- A proposed resolution requesting flexibility for state-funded instructional materials was discussed. The resolution supports the purchase of e-books and other technology in addition to standard textbooks.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the school board will be Monday, June 11, 2012 at 7 p.m. The public is invited and encouraged to attend.
