district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

Superintendent's Back-to-School Report

September 14, 2015

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

Enrollment

	K12 State Funded	All Students
10 Day Enrollment 2013	16,260	16,707
10 Day Enrollment 2014	16,449	16,900
10 Day Enrollment 2015	16,598	17,042

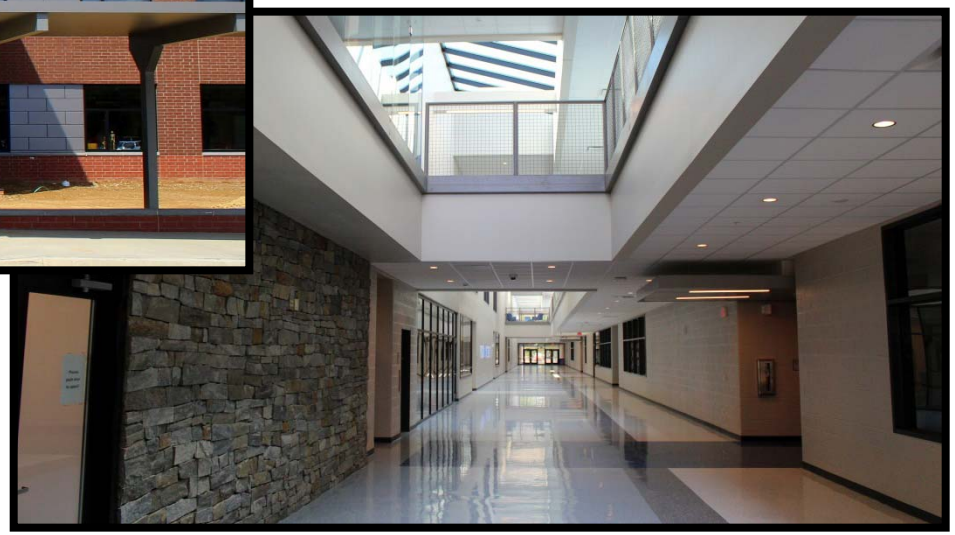

Student growth over the last two years – 335 students

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

The New

Chapin Middle School

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

Intermediate Schools

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

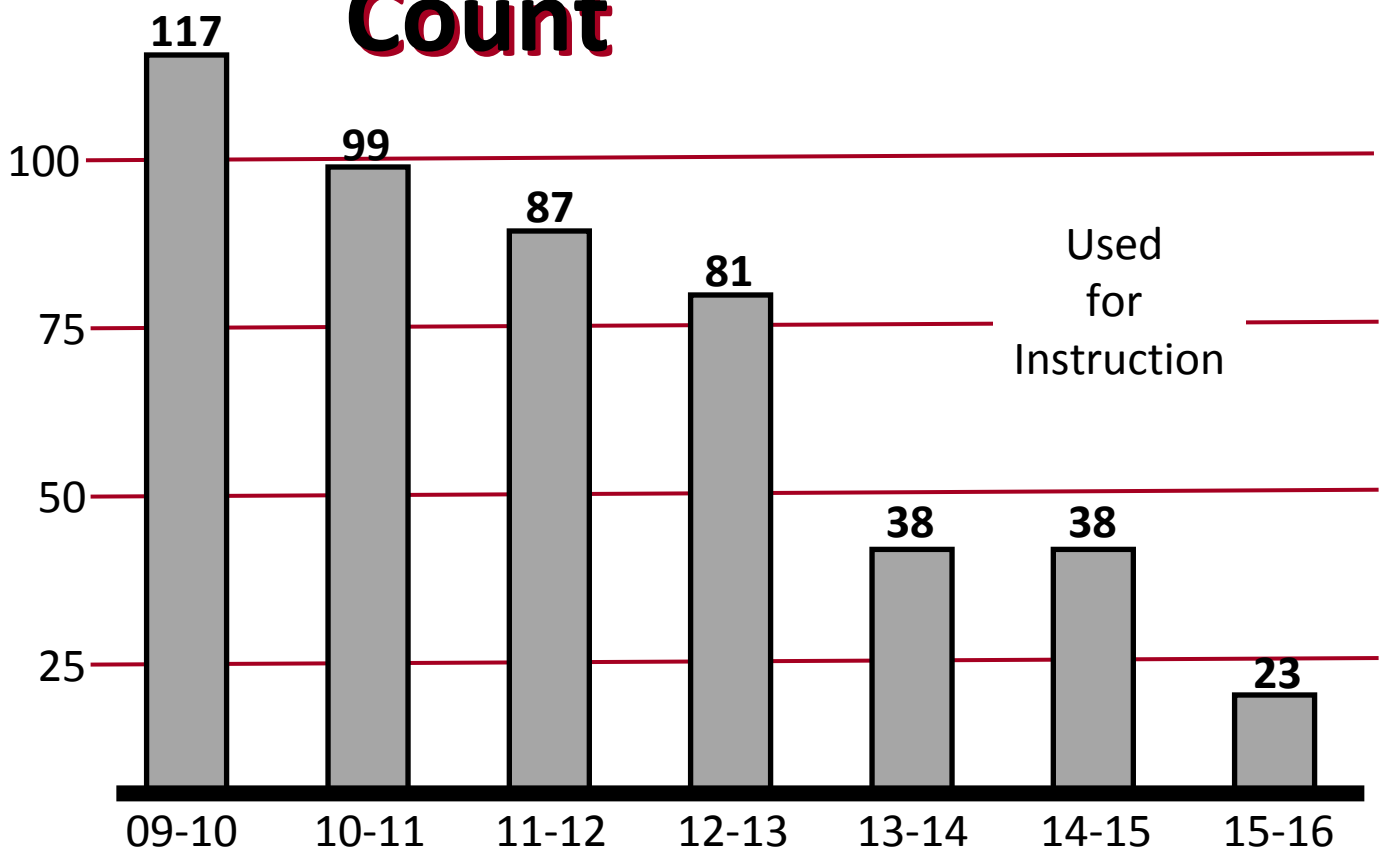

Elimination of Portable Classrooms

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

Portable Count

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

Infinite Visions

The transition to Infinite Vision is on track. Infinite Visions:

- Creates a “one-time” data entry across the system, reducing redundant and disconnected processes
- Implements an electronic workflow process, reducing the time necessary for employees to complete tasks
- Offers Employee Self-Help - Expense Reimbursement, Automated W-4, 24/7 pay stub, W-2 and demographic access, contract approval and surveys
- Reduces or eliminates hard-copy forms and other paper documents
- Improves reporting capabilities and consistency

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

Continued Success

- Ranked 3rd in highest SAT scores (for districts that tested at least 50 students)
  - Exceeded national and state averages
  - Tested the highest percentage of students in SC – 79%
  - Increased average score while increasing number of students tested

- Ranked 3rd in highest ACT scores
  - Exceeded national and state averages
  - Increased average score from 22.1 to 22.6 while increasing the number of students tested

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

Continued Success

- 8 National Merit Semifinalists named:
  - 2 – Chapin High School
  - 3 – Dutch Fork High School
  - 2 – Irmo High School
  - 1 – Spring Hill High School

- Increased graduation rate from 86.9 to 89.3

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

Continued Success

ONLYINYOURSTATE

These 15 Cities In South Carolina Have The Best Schools

 # 1. "Lexington-Richland School District Five: Comes in at the very top of our list for their exceptional test scores, wonderful teachers, and overall student happiness."

District Five

NICHE
Best Schools
RANKINGS

Top School District
South Carolina

district five
OF LEXINGTON & RICHLAND COUNTIES

“The toughest thing about success is that you’ve got to keep on being a success.”

- Irving Berlin