Bold School: Old School Wisdom + New School Technologies = Blended Learning that Works

“We know the truth: we have to layer technologies onto our instruction. But here’s another truth: we must do so with strategy, pedagogy, and purpose. That comes from educators, not from the technologies themselves.”

“Strategic technology use is use that is purposely chosen for its ability to move you toward defined student learning goals.”

- Weston Kieschnick
