There is a time and a place for everything, and our time will be best remembered as a time of change and togetherness. The school year of 1976-77 brought in a new principal, new faculty members, and a higher enrollment of boys. The dress code and honor code were revised; some senior privileges were extended to underclassmen; and there was a boys baseball team. All these are only a few of the things that occurred during 1976-77. As you look through this book you will find the best "TIMES OF OUR LIVES."

The "Times of Our Lives" Include . . .

A Time of Acceptance

Freshman initiation . . . a time of fun and laughter. A senior retreat . . . a time for self respect. The Angel drill team . . . a time for school spirit. An Angel player . . . a time for reassurance.

A Time of Participation

The participation of students in out-of-town activities. A time . . . for friendship . . . a time to speak out on political issues . . . and a time to relax.

A Time of Recognition

A time . . . to believe in yourself and in what you seek out to do. A time . . . of happy tears . . . and a time for seriousness.

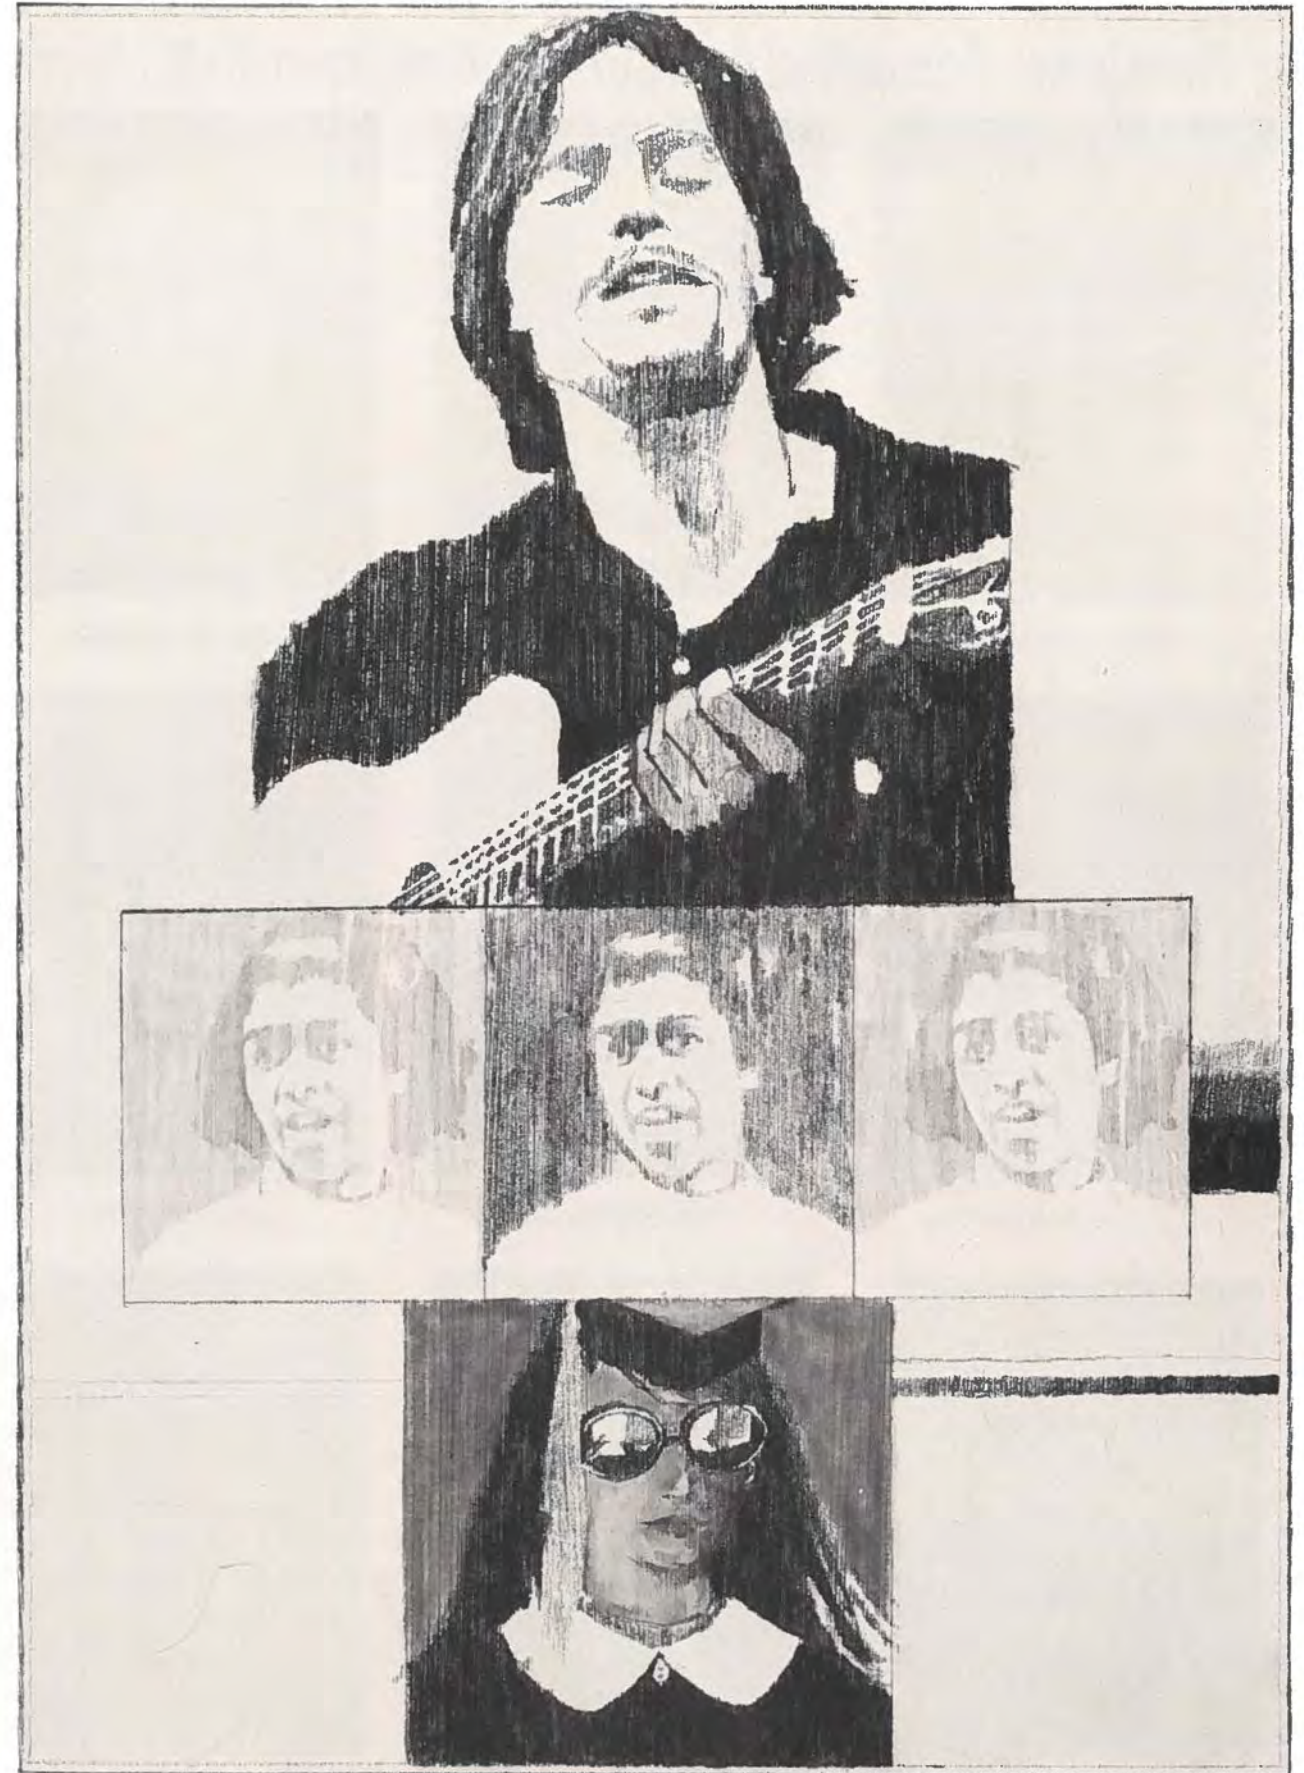

Time will pass us by, but these events will bring back the "Times of Our Lives."

A Time of Concentration

A time . . . of concentration and effort in what you seek to accomplish in spiritual music, in relaxation, in school spirit, and in good sportsmanship.

Faculty

Leading the school for the 1976-77 school year, Sister Martha O'Gara shows students the meaning of cooperation. Sister Martha teaches English II - III. This was her first year as principal of the high school. The office of the registrar had a new face this year also. Sister Agnes Marie teaches English II - III, Psychology, and Sociology.

Top Right: Sister Martha O'Gara, principal and Sister Agnes Marie Tengler, registrar.

Not Pictured: As a tribute to the secretaries of IWA, the Aurora staff would like to recognize Mrs. Gerry Thomson and Mrs. Delia Tucker for their dedication and hard work. Mrs. Thomson is a part-time secretary and a former graduate of IWA. Mrs. Tucker is also a part-time secretary and a graduate of a business college. Mrs. Margaret Ortiz is also a part-time secretary.

Far Right: Sister Mary Ann Korczynski teaches introductory Algebra I - II, Geometry, and Trig. She is also school treasurer and Sophomore A homeroom sponsor.

Sister Brenda Thompson works in the Guidance Office and is counselor for the school. She is also homeroom sponsor for Freshmen C.

Far Right: Mr. Casper Wenzel is Dean of boys. He is also coach for the boys' basketball, track, and baseball teams.

English Students Learn to Compete

Through writing and the practice of grammar, students learn the power of expression in English. After four years of English, taught by Mrs. Jewell Shaw, Sister Annette Wagner, Sister Martha O'Gara, Sister Agnes Marie Tengler, and Sister Benedict May, students are prepared to face the world of competition. This year English classes participated in several writing competitions.

Fine Arts Encourage Participation

The fine arts department encouraged student participation throughout the school year. Under the direction of Mrs. Marla Chisholm, the drama department presented the play, Stage Door. Many students participated in the one-time Broadway play. Drama students also learned techniques of expression and production in plays and classroom activities. Teaching the art class this year is Mrs. Adrienn Shelton. The art classes begin to express their ideas with abstract figures, paintings, stained figures, and sketchings. Students displayed their work at the front counter. Participation is a very important role for the journalism classes. Through stories, ads, pictures, and layouts Mrs. Gloria Mondragon and her journalism students explore communication.

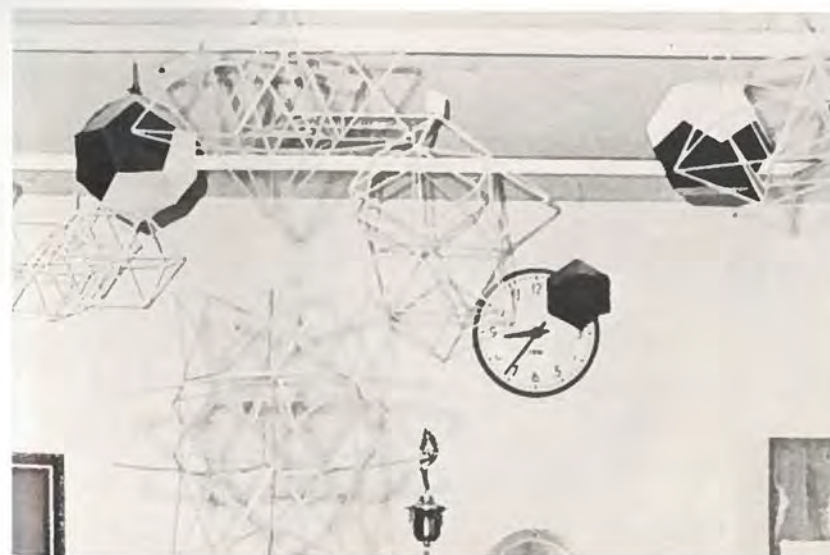

Top Right: Bruce Chabot and Miriam Ganz embrace during role in Stage Door.

Math Students Solve Problems

Each day math and business students face the reality of the accurate and precise way of learning. Business teacher Sister Mary Anne Roddy, and math teachers Sister Catherine Brehony and Sister Mary Ann Korczynski are the teachers behind these detailed and disciplined subjects. In the math world students solve the problems of Algebra, Geometry, and Trigonometry. In the business classes students learn to type and keep books accurately and correctly. Mrs. Karen Cox joined the business department late in the school year.

Top: Sister Catherine Brehony helps students with math problems.

Students Learn Office Skills, Techniques

Students learn to use both electric and manual typewriters in their business classes.

Top: Theresa Luna concentrates on time keeper as she types on IBM machine.

Skits, Dialogues Increase Foreign Language Proficiency

In Spanish classes students learn to communicate with each other by participating in class skits and other activities. With the help of Miss Roberta Chochola, students are able to communicate through translation of English to Spanish.

Top: Miriam Ganz and Lydia Suris study while in class.
Right: Priscilla Silvas awaits next skit to start.

Traditional languages of French, Spanish and Latin are taught by Mrs. Nancy Sulik, Miss Roberta Chochola, Mother Patricia Gunning and Father Gerald Langsch.

Through these classes students learn to communicate in a second language and to understand and appreciate the cultures of their neighbors around the world.

Top: French students look at bulletin board display for information.

History Students Study Events

Social Studies combines history, government, psychology and sociology. Sister Philomena McCormack teaches World History and American History, Mrs. Ana Marie Davis teaches government, Sister Agnes Marie Tengler teaches Psychology and Ms. Susan Miller teaches American History. The government class held paper drives throughout the school year under the direction of Mrs. Ana Marie Davis.

Top: Sister Philomena points to newspaper display as she explains the Lusitania sinking to her class.
Right: Guest speakers were invited to speak on current topics.

Top: Blake Farenthold prepares books as bell is about to ring.

Classes Enjoy Exercises

Sit ups, jumping jacks and push-ups are only a part of the physical fitness program. Guiding the students into the proper exercise is Coach Gail Ard, Sister Annette Wagner and Coach Casper Wenzel.

Top: Students take a break as they listen to Coach Ard's instructions for the next exercise.

Led by Mrs. Mary Grayson, the band practices daily and performs at assemblies. The band sponsored a Talent Show which included various talents ranging from students to teachers. Band members performed at Christmas along with the choir.

Homemakers Learn New Fashions

Homemaking students host teas and prepare meals for special guests. Under the direction of Sister Dorothy Anhaiser, the young homemakers learn to sew, cook and manage a home. Students are also advised about current fashions.

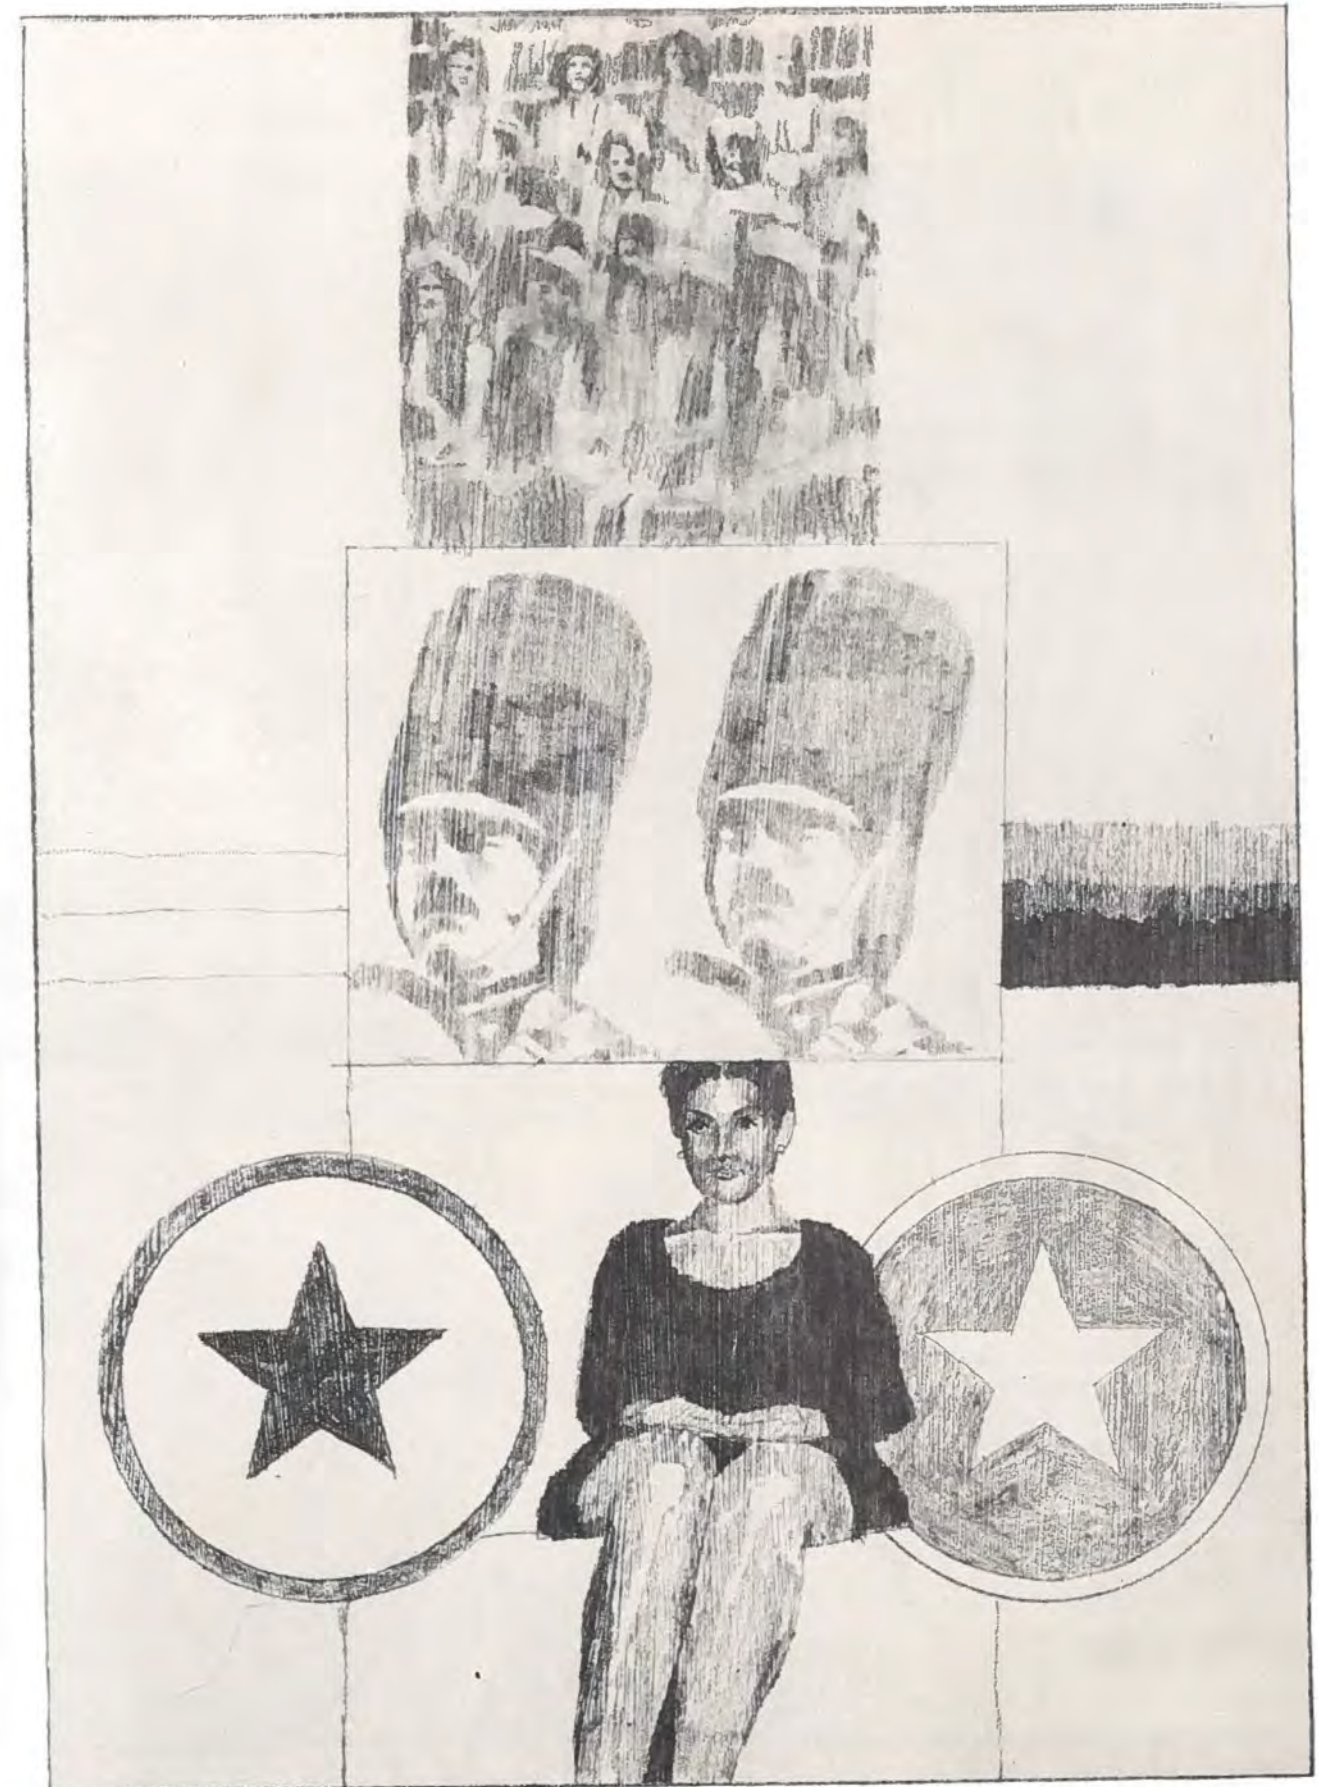

This year a variety of fashions appeared on campus. Girls were wearing gaucho pants with boots, denim skirts, jumpsuits or sun dresses. The platform shoe remained a part of the wardrobe. The fashions depicted a 1940's and 1950's look. Boys wore casual or corduroy pants with a shirt to match. Their fashions remained the same throughout the year.

Council Sponsors School Assemblies

Student Council provides students with the opportunity to develop leadership, cooperation, responsibility and initiative through working on various projects with the student body, faculty and Parents Club. The Council sponsored such activities as Howdy Days, Safety Week, and Lunch Week during the school year.

Heading the Student Council this year are Cathy Coco, president; Miriam Ganz, vice president; Linda Rios, secretary; Tim Veselka, treasurer; and Betsy Meyer, parliamentarian. Other members are Darlene Kolodziej; Karen Chepey, chaplin; Linda Lopez, faculty representative; Chris Gonzalez, honor court clerk; Elizabeth Morin, district representative; and Margaret Morin, historian. Sponsors are Miss Roberta Chochola and Sister Annette Wagner.

Karen Chepey is surprised as her name is called as an NHS member.

NHS Society Gives Honors

The National Honor Society is an organization in which students who excel in scholarship, character, service, and leadership are invited to participate. Students must achieve a certain scholastic average and must be recommended by the faculty.

NHS officers are: Cynthia Finger, president; Lisa Espenhover, vice president; Roxanne Costez, secretary; and Mona Barrientes, treasurer. Members are Linda Lopez, Lydia Suris, Roxanne Migl, Betsy Meyer, Kenneth Bath, Karen Chepey, Miriam Ganz, Mary Esther Garcia, Joanie Meaney. Bob Miller and Bill Pesek.

Publications Report Year

Under the direction of Mrs. Gloria P. Mondragon, advisor, publications staff members gain experience in yearbook and newspaper work.

Editor of the newspaper is Lamar Ynostroza. Chris Gonzalez and Kelly Foley are co-editors of the yearbook. Photographers for both publications are Blake Farenthold, Chris Nicholson and Frank Beck.

Three journalism students received awards in the journalism competition at TAPS in Houston. Blake Farenthold won a first place medal in editorial writing and a second in newswriting. Dennis Tagliabue took a first in newswriting and a second in editorial writing. Bruce Chabot received a first in feature writing.

Cheerleaders, Drill Team Boost Spirit

Enthusiasm and hard work are only part of a cheerleader's job. Weeks of practice on cheers and routines give cheerleaders the team spirit that helps spread Angel spirit. Under the guidance of Sister Evelyn Morales, cheerleaders play a big role at basketball games.

Howdy Days Greet Students

The 1976-77 school year opens with new faces, new looks on the campus, a revised dress code, and honor code system.

To meet all the new people and renew old friendships, students participated in Howdy Days sponsored by the Student Council.

Winners of the dress-up contest were senior Liz Morin, junior Veronica DeAlcala, sophomore Tony Barrera, and freshman Lori Bodine.

The Student Council also sponsored a Bunco Party for the freshman class.

Other Howdy Days activities included a get-together at Shakey's Pizza Parlor. Round-Up concluded the activities of the week. Students partied from 8 p.m. Friday to 8 a.m. Saturday morning.

Student Government Week featured a mock presidential campaign and election for President Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter. President Ford won the mock election and Jimmy Carter took the real election in the November race.

On December 17 the Student Council sponsored the movie Great Expectations for the entire school to view. After the movie a luncheon was provided for the students.

Teachers were recognized and presented a carnation. A gift was also presented to Cathy Coco for her leadership with the council. During the week students received Christmas cards from friends and admirers and were placed in a decorated box in front of the students lockers.

On December 28 the annual Holiday Ball was held at the Corpus Christi Country Club. Favorites were announced by Lulu Lopez, mistress of ceremonies. Music was provided by Dealers Choice.

Spirit Day Brings Fun

School Spirit Week was held May 10-13. The week featured class and school color days, crazy socks day and a special dance. Class spirit winners were senior Cathy Coco, junior Lydia Suris, sophomore Joanie Meaney, and freshman Margaret Arispe. Also announced at the dance were Margaret Morin, Miss School Spirit, and Gary Martinez, Mr. School Spirit.
