

Universal Assistive Technology Tools

- Chrome extension
- no eligibility requirements
- Login with Google Sign-on
- Text to speech engine that allows web content to be read aloud to student with computer voice.

- Remove distractions feature to eliminate ads and other unnecessary
- PDF tool that allows for annotation and text to speech
- Outline tool to help support research and report writing

- Chrome extension
- No eligibility requirements
- Login with Google Sign-on
- Word prediction tool

- Access to dictation tool
- Can be used as a phonetic spell check tool

- Chrome extension
- No eligibility requirements
- PDF annotation tool
- Type on a PDF
- Draw on a PDF
- Draw shapes
- Access all premium features with Google sign on

- Highlight tool
- Add voice comments
- Ability to add mathematical symbols
- Use voice typing
- Add additional media such as images, videos etc.
- Works with Snap&Read + Co:Writer!!

- VoiceOver
- Zoom
- Spoken Content
- Audio Descriptions
- Touch
- Voice Control

- Dictation
- keyboards
- word prediction
- Guided Access
- Display & Text Size
- Switch Control

- ChromeVox
- Select-to-speak
- Dictation
- High Contrast Mode
- Full screen magnifier
- docked magnifier
- Automatic Clicks

- On-screen keyboard
- Large mouse cursor
- Mono audio
- Highlight text caret
- Highlight mouse cursor
- Highlight object with keyboard focus
- Sticky keys

Questions? Contact:
Brigid Peterson, D205 AT Coordinator
bpeterson@elmhurst205.org