

The Tiger Times NEWSLETTER

Lincoln Middle School • Kansas City, Missouri

Greetings Lincoln Families:

The leaves are turning color, the temperatures are beginning to fall, and the night sky is getting darker more quickly each day. Fall is here! September flew by and it's a little hard to believe we are already turning the calendar to October. Our school has fantastic students, wonderful parents, and an amazing staff!

Things are going amazingly well here at Lincoln Middle, and I'd like to take the opportunity to share information with you to help you stay up to date.

Hispanic Heritage Celebration

We are celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month with a celebration on Tuesday, October 10th from 2:30pm until 5:00pm in the gymnasium. There will be student performances in dance and music and a special presentation. Spanish interpretation will be available. A Mexican fiesta will be served.

School Advisory Committee

Our School Advisory Committee held their first meeting on September 13th. We are pleased to inform you that our new SAC officers were elected, and they are eager to get the ball rolling on certain initiatives. We had incredibly good discussions about the new school year. Our next SAC meeting will be on October 11th at 6:00 PM and you are all invited.

Home and School Communication

Effective communication between the school and home is important to us and we are working to provide numerous ways for this to take place. We encourage you to do the following to help us communicate with you well.

Please make sure we have an up-to-date contact information in Infinite Campus. If you are not receiving any email from us then it probably means we have incorrect information on our end.

Talk with your child's teachers about Canvas and how it can be used as a communication tool. Follow us on Facebook (Lincoln College Preparatory Academy Middle School)

Parent-Teacher Conferences

Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held on Thursday, October 26th from 10:00am until 6:00pm. There will be no school for students.

Lincoln was visited by Million Bazillion Live! "Who Wants to Be a Bazillionaire?"

On September 21st, students at Lincoln College Preparatory Academy Middle School learned about financial literacy with Million Bazillion Live! "Who Wants to be a Bazillionaire?" Based on the Webby-winning kids' podcast Million Bazillion from Marketplace and presented by Greenlight, Million Bazillion Live! brings financial knowledge and empowerment to middle school students.

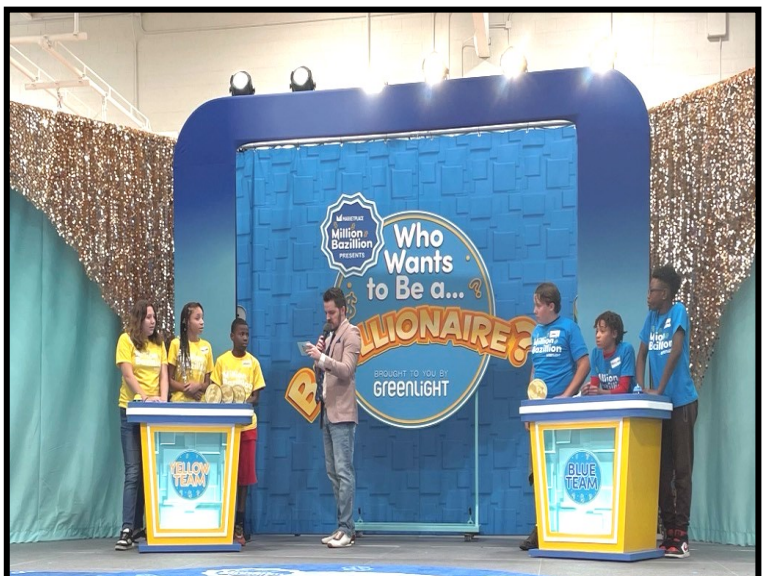

American Public Media's® (APM) Marketplace®, the most widely consumed business and economic news programming in the country, partnered with Greenlight® Financial Technology, Inc. (Greenlight), the fintech company on a mission to help parents raise financially smart kids, to launch this dynamic financial literacy tour, Million Bazillion Live! "Who Wants to be a Bazillionaire?"

Personal finance education still is not a requirement for students to graduate in all 50 states. 27 states don't require a personal finance course, even though teens score an average of 64% on the National Financial Literacy Test. At the same time, 93% of teens know they need financial knowledge and skills to achieve their life goals — and 97% of parents agree.*

Presented in a fun, entertaining game show format, Million Bazillion Live! is an immersive experience with personal finance trivia, challenges, and prizes. During the tour, students will cheer on their classmates while learning about real money matters such as budgeting, saving, and investing.

Tiger artist-scholars paint murals for school beautification

Each semester, Mr. Bush, art instructor, has a project where students paint murals around the school. They will be starting the project soon. It is designed to mirror the experience of working as a professional artist, so he has asked teachers who are willing to act as clients and are interested in hiring an artist to create a mural. As a client, they will need to have an idea for a mural and a wall they would like to see it on. For example, last school year, Ms. Montgomery, ELA instructor, said she wanted an ELA theme across from her room and students were able to apply to her "call for artists" by coming up with a mural design. More than one student group can apply by submitting a bid for the job. She chose the design she liked best and asked students to add in something about Breast Cancer Awareness. So, the students came up with the design below. Stay tuned for the finished work!
