Community Schools, Thriving Students

Monday, May 8, 2023

Dear Oakland Unified Community,

As another day of working toward an agreement with the Oakland Education Association approaches an end, we are sorry to report we are preparing for a fourth consecutive day of the teachers' strike. Schools will once again be open on Tuesday, May 9, with nutrition services and other supports available for students. But with teachers engaging in the work stoppage, school operations will be reduced as they have been since Thursday of last week.

Below is a message from Superintendent Dr. Kyla Johnson-Trammell.
