

Valued Partnership Scholarship (page 1 of 3)

Purpose:

Continuing our commitment as a valued community partner, the Phillips 66 Sweeny Refinery Valued Partner Scholarship will award two $1,500 scholarships to local high school graduating seniors pursuing a Trade or Vocational Pathway Program post-graduation. Recipients of the scholarships will have demonstrated a strong commitment to their trade and provide proof of enrollment or plans to enroll at one of the Eligible Accredited Institutions and study an Eligible Area of Study (details below).

Phillips 66 has provided application forms and scholarship guidelines to the high schools. Senior students should be notified of the scholarship by the school and may pick up the application form at a location designated by the school. The school should mail all completed applications to Jessica Follett, Communications and Public Affairs Advisor, P. O. Box 866, Sweeny, TX 77480, no later than March 21, 2024. Following the selection process, Phillips 66 will notify each school of the recipients. It is the school's responsibility to ensure the students are present at the award ceremony.
