

Swallow School District
Transitional Review Form

The 3rd grade transitional review has been an on-going process this school year. The Gifted and Talented Coordinator has met with your child's teacher(s) for their input. Additionally, we have taken into consideration the parent survey you completed and administered any additional testing.

The following is being recommended for your child:

	At this time, the identification and the level of services seem appropriate. Your child's identification level and services continues to be:

	At this time, we will be watching to see if changes in the identification may be needed in the future. Your child's identification level and services continues to be:

	At this time, your child's needs will continue to be met within the classroom. Many students find that the curriculum in grades 4-8is challenging and supports their academic needs without additional gifted programming.
