PRAYERS NEEDED

Mark Huppe

Mark Huppe who is a devoted Catholic and charismatic personality is in need of our prayers. Many may be unaware but Mark was diagnosed with throat cancer over a year ago. He has gone through multiple surgeries and chemo treatments.

Maureen most recently posted on his caring bridge, "Mark is very weak and hopefully he will gain some strength in the next couple of days...he's been through a lot.

I can't tell you how blessed our family feels with all the love, support and especially the prayers. He has a long and hard road ahead but with all the prayers and support we will embrace God's will, asking for peace and acceptance."

Mark Huppe has blessed so many lives with his positive unwavering faith and joy for life. Please join us in praying for the Huppe family.
