POSTGRADUATE GAP YEAR

Postgraduate Audition and Portfolio Intensive

For those seeking an educational gap year between high school and post-secondary studies, Walnut Hill offers a Postgraduate Gap Year for students to study intensively and prepare audition and portfolio materials. Music, Dance, Visual Art, Theater, and WFMA (Writing, Film & Media Arts) disciplines maintain a focused curricula, emphasizing arts training in preparation for post-secondary studies.

When not practicing their art, postgraduate students are afforded the unique opportunity to make time for internships and network at neighboring arts institutions, getting an early lead on delving into the arts world ahead of college.

Walnut Hill's Postgraduate Gap Year is the only one of its kind in New England and the only one in a US metropolitan area. English Language Learning (ELL) courses are also offered as an optional add-on in the Postgraduate Gap Year.

As a postgraduate student at Walnut Hill, you will:

• Have easy access to Boston's cultural institutions and all that the city has to offer.
• Be able to get an arts internship in the Boston metropolitan area.
• Be able to attend arts events (concerts, exhibitions) in Boston on a regular basis.
• Be given expanded practice room and studio space.
• Only be required to take major-specific courses (academic courses can be taken optionally)
• Be given a single room in one of Walnut Hill's campus dormitories.

The Postgraduate Gap Year is a time of essential preparation for the student who seeks admittance into the top arts institutions. At Walnut Hill, you'll be perfectly positioned to apply to the world's elite art schools, colleges, and conservatories.

2024-25 Tuition Rates
