

Happenings at Senatobia/Tate County CTC

Issue No. 1 - August 30, 2022

HOSA Competition in Nashville

Second year students competed in the International Competition in Nashville, TN in June of 2022. Pictured right to left: Danny Gutierrez, Katelyn Davis, Shelby West, Karan Burns, Madison Richardson, Kenai Williamson, Misty Lacefield, and Malcolm Oliver. Karan really finished up strong.

Further your education in the Health Science Fields

Ms. Burns has had many students go on to serve in the medical fields, especially attending NWCC.

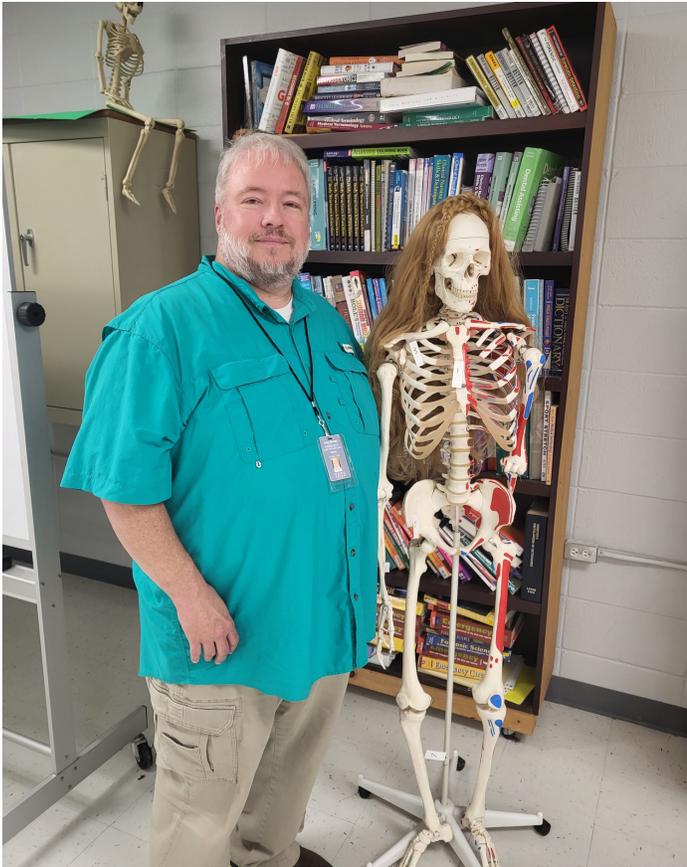

The link to health sciences at NWCC is:

<https://www.northwestms.edu/programs/healthsciences>

Happenings at Senatobia/Tate County CTC

Issue No. 1 - August 30, 2022

New CTC Health Sciences teacher

Gary Brooks, RN, is the new Health Sciences teacher at CTC. After 26 years of teaching, Karan Burns retired at the end of last year. Mr. Brooks has worked as an RN in many different capacities and will make a wonderful addition to the staff.

Karan Burns Retires

Karan burns had taught Health Sciences at the CTC for 26 years - until May of 2022- when she decided to retire. A reception in her honor was held at the CTC and was attended by family, coworkers and former students.

