WANDA BARTHOLOMEW

If you hear someone arguing about the government with Mr. Pullen, it will be Wanda Bartholomew. Wanda, who has been in the varsity debate team for three years, is known for her outstanding work in N.E.L. This June she will participate in the national debate tournament in Boston.

Wanda moved into Bath Township at the beginning of her seventh year of school. She has been well liked because of her pleasing personality.

CONNIE BURKETT

Connie Burkett, one of the original first graders at Bath, has a warm, pleasing personality. Being chairman of the Service Committee in Y-Teens, she is kept busy. Every morning she sells supplies in the library.

Connie is active in speech work and is a member of the N.E.L. After graduation she hopes either to become a receptionist or get married. Judging by that diamond ring on her finger, it will be the latter.

LOUISE CALDWELL

Louise Caldwell attended both Richfield and Bath Schools before they were combined into Revere. Louise is hoping to get a job as a secretary after graduation and then later go to a modeling or a fashion school. Louise is noted for her friendly smile. She has been active in Y-Teens and is chairman of the Social Committee this year.

NORMAN CLARK

If you see a jet flying over your home someday, it will probably be Norman Clark, who after graduation hopes to finish jet school and then enter the Navy. He has been in the Student Council several years and also played on the basketball and football teams. He has been outstanding in the H-Y in which he has been a member for three years and president this year.

THELMA COLLINS

Another student who has attended one school, Richfield, for twelve years is Thelma Collins. She is well known for her pleasing personality. Thelma has been in Y-Teens and mixed chorus.

Because her favorite subject has been typing, which she enjoys very much, Thelma wants to become a secretary after she graduates.

CHESTER CRAMER

Chester Cramer enrolled in Bath School in September, 1949. Chester has played on the football and basketball teams. He played outstanding football this year and received one of the special trophy awards. As yet he has no plans for work after graduation.

RAY DAMIAN

If someone asks to borrow a piece of paper or a pencil, it is most likely to be Ray Damian, who likes to bother people by asking them for one thing or another. Ray is also known for his humor and his wisecracks, as well as his outstanding work in math. Ray intends to attend college after graduation.

MAUREEN DARST

Maureen Darst's first love is dramatics, not only on stage but off, which helps to liven things around Revere and makes everything interesting.

She is vice-president of the Thespians and has appeared in many school plays, among them "Pride and Prejudice." After graduation Maureen plans to go to the University of Miami and study dramatics and art.

STEPHEN GLADWIN

One of the most lively boys in the class is Stephen Gladwin, better known as Skip. Most of his time he spends tinkering with his car. He is humorous, good looking, and likes to have fun in any way he can.

After graduation he plans to work for awhile and go to college or flight engineer's training.

JOAN GORBACH

Horses, horses, horses, nothing else can describe Joan Gorbach's favorite pastime. Participating in horse shows, she has won several trophies and is an active member of the Junior Horseman Association.

Active in many organizations, Joan will be remembered most for being a majorette for three years and being sports editor of the REVERE LANTERN. Outstanding in Math, she plans to attend Bowling Green University to study mathematics and physical education.

FAITH HARRIS

Sweet and feminine are two good adjectives describing Faith Harris. Faith, interested in dramatics, served as president of Thespians and played the part of Elizabeth in "Pride and Prejudice."

Faith, a member of the National Honor Society, has been on the honor roll all four years of high school. She has been on the scholarship team all four years, excelling in English. After graduating she hopes to study medicine.

ELEINE HARTMAN

Elaine Hartman will be remembered most for her cheer-leading. She has been a cheerleader for five years, but she has enjoyed every moment of it. Elaine is active in Y-Teens, not only by being vice-president, but also by being captain of the Y-Teen basketball team.

She is noted for having the blondest hair imaginable. After graduation she plans to attend Bowling Green University and major in physical education.

MARY LEE HENRY

Arriving from Peninsula, Mary Lee Henry came to Richfield in the eighth grade. Mary Lee has a pleasing personality and is well liked by her classmates. Her hobbies are playing volleyball, basketball, and bowling. She was a member of the Bowling League last year. After graduation Mary plans to do some kind of clerical work.

MARIE ISLEY

Marie Isley can tell stories just about as tall as she is, and the listener can never tell whether it's the truth or her own imagination working overtime. For this, her wonderful sense of humor, and her ability to give and take a joke are what Marie will be remembered best around Revere.

Law is her favorite subject, and her hobby is raising mink. After graduation she plans to loaf.

MARY KERN

"Anchors Away" is the song Mary Kern wants to be singing, for she plans to join the Waves as soon as possible. English literature is Mary's favorite subject. Although she has no special hobby, she likes to listen to any kind of music. Mary will probably be remembered best at Revere for her quiet nature, which is very unusual for a senior.

SANDRA KETTLER

"Horses, Horses, Horses" could be Sandra's theme song, for this is one of her main interests. Sandra has a horse of her own called Sunrise. If her horse can't take her where she wants to go, she can depend on Hessie (her jalopy.)

Sandra is a member of the Y-Teens and made the decorations for the Christmas Dance. After graduation she intends to go into Nurses' Training at St. Luke's in Cleveland.

ELLEN KING

This seemingly quiet and bashful senior might deceive anyone, but whenever there is mischief brewing she can usually be found. Ellen was one of the seniors to begin the first grade in Richfield. She has worked on the school paper for four years and this year is Student Council custodian and Y-Teen program chairman.

Painting consumes much of her spare time. After graduation she plans to go to Johns Hopkins and become an X-Ray technician.

MARY ANN LEE

This strong, healthy, senior girl, Mary Ann Lee, who plays on Revere's Y-Teen basketball team, could make any boys' team because she has the ability of shooting and making baskets. Besides being a good athlete, Mary Ann is always busy running the mimeograph machine or typing for someone else.

Chewing gum and studying?? are her hobbies, and psychology is her favorite subject. She plans to go to college after graduation.

GENE LEPKO

Gene Lepko likes to imitate popular singers. He likes to sing and has taken music during all four high school years. Nearly everyone has seen Gene play guard on the Richfield basketball team or the Revere squad, for he has been on the Varsity team for four years.

After graduation, Gene would like to tour the great lakes and then attend Kent State University this fall.

PATRICIA LOUDNER

Pat Loudner is known for her long, dark hair. She is an outdoor girl and likes to ride horses. Pat has gone to several schools in her high school career and has played on the Y-Teen basketball team at most of them.

Although her family moved to Cincinnati, Pat liked Revere so well she decided to remain here to receive her diploma. Pat would like to become a secretary after graduation.

JACK LOUTHAN

Jack Louthan is an ardent coin collector and owns many old and rare coins. This sandy-haired fellow has shown ability in both baseball and basketball. As one of his pastimes Jack likes to pester people. He will probably attend Akron University this fall.

MICHAEL MCCOY

Here is a chap that cannot be described in a few words. Mike McCoy has been a leader of the class since coming to Bath as a freshman. He has been prominent in nearly every school activity.

Mike was voted honorary captain of the football team this year and received a trophy for the best defense back. His record as a debator has been one of distinction. Mike says he is interested in law, but has no definite plans after graduation.

CHARLES MEALEY

A tall, lean fellow aptly describes a senior who goes by the name of Chas. Mealey. He has a unique manner of driving and is famous for his conical remarks. Chas has been active in speech and a projector operator. His scholastic achievement is high, especially in chemistry. His plans after graduation include becoming a chemical engineer.

STEPHEN MERKEL

Stephen Merkel is the class electrician and inventor. He has been Mrs. Bruner's chief electrician for numerous plays. Steve is almost constantly making drawings of his inventions on his homework papers.

His activities include Thespians and being a projector operator. His favorite pastime is either eating or sleeping. Steve would like to attend college this fall.

DON MITTON

Don Mitton is the boy with the most freckles in the senior class. His hair is bright red and his eyes are deep brown. You'll either find Don asleep or doing something devilish. Don is an easygoing chap, but when he wants something done, he does it.

After graduation he would like to go to Arizona and start a horse ranch.

PATRICIA NEILLIE

The quiet girl with the sincere blue eyes is Patricia Neillie, better known as Pat. Pat is secretary of both the senior class and the Y-Teens. Her outstanding work has been done as co-editor of the REVERE LANTERN. Even though she is quiet, she has a warm and friendly personality which makes everyone like her.

She plans to attend business school and become a secretary.

JANET OLSON

Janet Olson is one of the shining lights of the senior class with her humor and witty remarks. She likes fun, as her mischievous brown eyes will tell you.

Janet is treasurer of Thespians and has performed in several plays during her four years at Bath and Revere. She plans to attend the University of Chattanooga in order to become a medical technician.

LETICIA PALMER

Leticia Palmer, the girl with the velvet voice and lovely brown eyes, has done outstanding speech work this year, qualifying to compete at Columbus in dramatics and placing third in the N.F.L. district. Leticia also was the originator of the high school bowling team and played guard on the Y-Teen basketball team. College in California will keep her busy after graduation.

RICHARD PEARSON

Dick Pearson will be remembered most for his participation in athletics. Dick, a member of the football team four years, varsity basketball three years, track and baseball teams, has the build for an athlete, being 6 feet 1 inch, and weighing 185 pounds.

Usually one can either find him driving his blue convertible or working at the Minute Wash in Akron. He plans to attend college and study sales engineering.

NANCY PEOPLES

Nancy Peoples' favorite hobby is horses and more horses. She enjoys working with horses and ponies very much.

Nancy is quiet but very friendly with all her classmates. She is a member of Y-Teens and also likes to paint figurines and sew for a pastime. After graduation she intends to go to business school and take up office and secretarial work.

CRAIG RICHMOND

Craig Richmond likes tinkering with cars and his extra-curricular school activities. Among these are National Honor Society, speech work, dramatics, and being a Student Council member and treasurer.

Craig will attend Oberlin College next year. His ambition is to excel in his chosen field, but he hasn't decided what that will be as yet.

CAROL ROLLER

Carol Roller, who came to Richfield School at the beginning of her junior year, likes music and likes to sing. She also likes athletics and gym classes.

Carol was one of the students responsible for the distribution of the REVERE LANTERN this year. Another of Carol's pastimes is cooking. She would like to join the WAFs after graduation.

GILBERT SCHMIDT

Gil Schmidt is another of those singing seniors. He likes working with his father and sings all the while. He is an athlete too. Gil was a star basketball player for several years at Revere. He likes to bowl for the Monday Night League and is a successful bowler. His favorite subject during high school was English literature.

GEORGE SCHULTZ

George Schultz's hobby is collecting stamps. Another interest is wood-working, that is when he can find time to do it. He gets good grades and has enjoyed his speech work, especially debate. George, a quiet boy with a friendly smile, plans to study industrial engineering in the immediate future.

RALPH SENEFF

Ralph Senoff's hobby is con hunting. Next important in his interests is baseball, which he likes to play but not to watch. Ralph played top-notch football for Revere in his junior year. He also enjoys driving around in his '50 Chevy. After graduation, Ralph plans to take orders about the Army.

DELMARCIA SHORT

Most of Delmarcia Short's time is spent with her horse, Firefly. She plans to go on circuit this summer with a group of other riding enthusiasts. Another interest is psychology, and Del has often been seen discussing the subject with Revere's psychology teacher, Mr. Pullen. She has been contact girl for the Beacon Journal for two years.

Her ambition is to travel to all parts of the United States.

FRANKLIN SNOW

This quiet, red haired Franklin Snow, now commonly known as Bud, is forever teasing the girls. Bud was very much interested in basketball, especially playing varsity ball. He is generally very quiet, but once in a while he breaks that tradition.

Although he has an offer of a job in Cleveland when he graduates, Bud plans to take up Diesel engine training.

LINDA SOMMER

Here's a pretty blond who has but one main interest in life, Charlie Squires. That is quite obvious due to the fact that she is wearing his diamond ring on her left hand.

Linda, earlier in her high school career, was active in Y-Teens. She was treasurer of the group and also played on the basketball team. At present, however, her plans are directed toward the field of matrimony.

KATHLEEN SPICKARD

As soon as she graduates, Kathleen hopes to find a job as an assistant bookkeeper. In high school her outstanding accomplishments were being a varsity football cheerleader and doing oratorical work in N.F.L.

Her main interest is Bob, the fellow with whom she's always found, and she likes all of school in general. Kathleen was active in many of the clubs during her high school days.

ELMER STRODTBECK

"Big Elmer" will be remembered most for his active participation on the basketball court. However he claims that his main interest is girls; then comes football; and third is basketball.

Since Elmer was offered a scholarship to the University of Wisconsin, he has decided to accept it and to study agriculture. Although he will be studying, he plans to take an active part in athletics while he is in college.

JAMES SYMES

As soon as he graduates, Jim plans to get a job and go to work. He's a man of money, but that's only because he likes to collect old coins. He was also very interested in lit-Y, and he worked on the school paper for a year.

Jim is interested in outdoor work or activities, is an ardent fan of baseball, and likes to play basketball. In fact he was on the reserve team for awhile.

HELEN TETZEL

If you happen to be at the Y.W., you will probably meet Helen Tetzels who has been very active in the Y-Teens, being president of the club this year. Helen is one of the varsity cheerleaders for basketball and football.

If she is talking to someone in a strange language, she is just practicing her French lesson. She wants to enter nurses' training school this fall.

EUGENE VANN

Gene is forever pestering someone. In fact his hobby is aggravating Mr. Pullen. He plans to go to college and says it will probably be to Akron University.

Gene's main activity was football, but he also was very much interested in baseball and Thespians. He also likes to drive that blue Hudson. He spends most of his spare time with Anne. He calls her his favorite pastime.

MICKIE WILKS

If there is mischief done, look for Mickie Wilks because Mickie enjoys devilish tricks. She has been a sports writer for three years and sports editor on the REVERE LANTERN for one year. Mickie enjoys sports as well as writing about them and was a member of the Y-Teen softball team at Richfield and a member of the Revere Y-Teen basketball team. Mickie hopes to become a sports writer on the "Cleveland News."

CLASS PROPHECY

Ring Leaves In Missionary's Nose

Wanda Bartholomew, missionary to the deepest regions of hitherto unexplored Africa, was given a departure party today when her ship left port. Wanda, complete with ring in nose, (for atmosphere) was addressed by Connie Burkett who gave the parting speech. Miss Burkett, a very prominent person, is chief bookkeeper for Harry (they'll never get me out) Truman. Mr. Truman, still hoping, refuses to leave the White House. He still retains his position of Chief Assistant Gardner there.

Jet Squeezer Squeezes

Working at the Crack'em-up Jet plant these days is Louise Caldwell, fashion designer. "The new style in jets this year," says Miss Caldwell, "is the flared fin tips copied from the newest Cadillac." It seems the automobile industry will have nothing on the aircraft industry this year. Norman Clark, vice-president in charge of jet-squeezing, agreed heartily. Norman, because of his small size, is the chief jet-squeezer in the plant. It seems he is the man who squeezes down into the intake of the jet to see if the light goes off when one shuts the door.

Damian Rides Again

Ray (Zing) Damian, notorious meat hook rider, has finally been caught riding the "hooks" at the new Country Counter Store, just south of here. Thelma Collins, Secretary of the Interior (of the student cabinet) has been approached for views on the subject. Said she, "I knew he would get it in the end." This is exactly what happened.

Vassar Boy Invents Can Opener

A unique new type can opener has just been invented by Stephen Gladwin, graduate of Vassar College. Manufacturing them by the millions, he states they will be used for cutting off the tops of sedans for summer use, an idea which was inspired in his youth. Maureen Darst, illustrator for the firm, gave their selling slogan for stock in the new company: If you'd like to lose your shirt, Invest in the can opener that converts.

Doctor Treats Gorbach As Patient

Recovering from a recent case of pneumonia (occupational disease), bareback rider Joan Gorbach gave this explanation. "That will teach me to go riding with a bare back in winter weather." Joan's doctor, Faith Harris, who also cares for her horses, is to be credited with the complete recovery. Said she, "I just treated her as I would any of my other patients." HMMMMMMMM.

Hartman Finds Ideal Occupation

Credited by the Laub Baking Company as being the most beautiful loafer in their bread factory, Elaine (give a cheer) Hartman bestows the credit for her beauty to her beautician, Mary Lee Henry.

When approached on the subject, Miss Henry stated publicly that she had finally discovered the cure for beauty. When questioned on the details, Miss Henry refused to say more, outside of the fact that any woman could successfully use her treatment, and most do.

Isley Cries as Hair Is Cut

Marie Isley, famous hair grower, just sold her famous four foot tresses to the Merkel Horsehair Mattress Company. Reported to be the only hair that long in the world, the cutting of it brought tears to Miss Isley's eyes. Rubbing his hands together, Mr. Merkel remarked that he wished he had more workers as diligent as Miss Isley.

Nurse's Patients Landed

Smiling with quiet pride, Mary Kern, woman agricultural agent, received the prize for having the most productive farm in Summit County. She attributes her success to the unfailingly competent care

CLASS PROPHECY

Graduate nurse Sandra Ketnouncement. When questioned as to her methods, Sandra replied, "I just treat them as I would like to be treated."

Squirt Gun To Fire Fine

Working together for nearly 10 years, Ellen
King and Mickie Wilks (happy) have perfected the ideal squirt gun combination. The gun automatically fires five times in succession without re-loading, spraying the air with the unmistakable?? of Stockyards at Midland.

Lee Uses Loudner for Guinea Pig

Mary Ann Lee, noted X-ray technician, has discovered a fact of great importance. Working with her secretary, Assistant Patricia Loudner as guinea pig for many years, she finally after many failures
and supposed successes, found it.

Being sought after for many years, the whereabouts of the lost chord has remained a mystery for many years. The names Lee and Loudner will remain in history for this discovery.

Lepke Coaches; Daisies Grow

Coach Gene Lepke, of the Lower Slobovian Daisies, recently made public the secret of his pro star
Buddy (Franklin) Snow.
Says Buddy, "Most people
wonder how a smaller lad like me made good in probasketball. My secret is this. I never try to go around any of the big boys.
I just dribble between their legs."

P.U. Alumnus Invents Safety Slicer

In conjunction with Jack Louthan, noted electrician, Don Mitton, has recently perfected the "Ideal Meat Slicer." Said to have many safety features wired in by Jack, a graduate of Podunk University, the slicer has a small red light which flashes whenever the user cuts anything but animal flesh.

McCoy Races Truman For Position

Michael McCoy, present
editor of the Sogg Hollow Times (called Times because its circulation is about one times ten) entered his name today on the White House Gardner primary list. Gardner Harry Truman said, with a worried look, "In that case I'll be forced to withdraw my name."

Bachelor Discovers Baby Formula

Veteran chemist Charles Mealey has finally discovered what he terms
"The perfect baby formula." A rubber chemist for years, Charles recently made the switch and started working in conjunction with graceful, quiet, child psychologist, Linda Squires, (formerly Linda Sommer) who has found what she terms the "Perfect family relationship." Says Linda, "After raising 17 of your own, you tend to find that perfect relationship that leads to peaceful, relaxed living." After this brief interview, Linda excused herself for an appointment with her psy-choanalyst.

Housewife Wins On Quiz Program

Miss Patricia Neillie won the grand prize on a television quiz program last night. Miss Neillie answered the question, "What is the name of Washington's monument?" and was awarded one portable elevator, a large boy, and 30 minutes in the U.S. Mint, plus a bottle of the new perfume invented by that noted chemical engineer,
George Schultz. Said
George (sniff-sniff) Schulz,
"The new perfume I originated will be called 'Nothing'." It's George's plan to advertise
thus: "Girls, are you unpopular? Wear NOTHING and see for yourself how rapidly this situation can be eliminated."

Ladybug Tongues Inspire "Burp"

Slaving for many years on the question "What makes ladybugs act like ladies?" Miss Janet Olson, noted laboratory technician accidentally stumbled on a rare delicacy, ladybug tongues. Being hospitalized, she could not be reached for comment, but her secretary, Nancy Peoples, had this to say: "Burp." She added, "For snacks they're so handy, or eat them like candy."

Palmer's Padded Lockers Produce Pandemonium

Winning the top award for ideas on decorating the new locker rooms of Revere High, Miss Leticia Palmer described her idea
this way: "We plan maroon quilted lockers with contrasting royal blue carpeting. Money is no object."

Carol Roller, fashion designer, has added her contribution to the new theme of maroon and blue with quilted blue knee-length shorts for the basketball team with the most darling side pockets edged in maroon. It seems the large pockets are for hidden ball plays.

CLASS WILL

We, the graduating class of Revere High School, in view of the fact that we are about to leave this educational institution, do hereby direct this last will and testament to students still struggling to graduate.

To Mary Ann Gomoll, I, Wanda Bartholomew, give my ability to debate with anyone, and to Jeannette Ogle I leave my naturally curly locks.

To Jeanette Martin, I, Connie Burkett, bequeath my sixteen ounces to a pound.

I, Louise Caldwell, leave my three straight study halls to studious Shirley McPherson.

I, Norman Clark, will my position on the bench in basketball to Lawton Vaughn.

I, Thelma Collins, leave my typing ability to Jerry Lutz and my way of getting along with Mr. Knapp to Mary Alice Esther.

I, Chester Cramer, will my beautiful curly hair to James McGuire.

To Paul Coffa, I, Ray Damian, leave my mailing address at 12222.

To Kathleen Raby, I, Maureen Darst, will all 100 of my Johnny Ray records.

I, Skip Gladwin, do will and bequeath my false teeth to Janet Keckler.

I, Joan Gorbach, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Bayliss to all the junior girls.

I, Faith Harris, will my typing ability to Buzzy Davis, custodian, who will have about as much use for it as I do.

To Barbara Hancock, I, Elaine Hartman, will the gunpowder I ate that made my hair come out in bangs.

I, Mary Lee Henry, leave my great ability to play basketball to James Esther who will have use for it next year.

To the driver training students, I, Marie Isley, will my calm, cool nerves.

To Donna Sir Louis, I, Mary Kern, leave my quiet nature.

I, Sandra Kettler, leave my faithful "Hessi" to anyone willing to buy oil for her and my powers of persuasion to Hope Harris.

To Janet Kiser, I, Ellen King, leave my car that has an instinct which leads it to Buchtel and Garners, my knack of getting out of study hall to Janet Wells, and my method of getting the most out of school by putting the least into it to David Dickson.

I, Mary Ann Lee, will my beautiful penmanship to Mr. Friedman, my ability to read and write to the senior class of 1953, and my habit of chewing gum to Mr. Pugh.

I, Gene Lepke, leave to Damon Cranz and James Kamps, to divide equally between them, my way with the women and to Bruce Bleichrodt my basketball ability.

I, Patricia Loudner, leave my long, unbleached hair to Patricia Smulbach.

To Glenda Grether, I, Jack Louthan, leave my sense of humor.

To Barbara Andel, I, Michael McCoy, will my ability to give speeches.

I, Charles Mealey, leave my privilege of calling Mrs. Bruner "dear" to Carl Oglesby.

I, Steve Merkel, leave!

To Richard Feiber, I, Don Mitton, give my ability to keep away from girls.

I, Patricia Neillie, leave my ability to blush to Annie Rooy and my driving skill??? to my sister Ellen.

I, Janet Olson, leave my sense of humor to Mary Squires and my short haircut to Pauline Valentine.

To anyone who wants to "torcher" teachers, I, Leticia Palmer, leave my wonderful ability to spell.

I, Richard Pearson, give to Philip Arnold my ability to use chiropractic methods in football.

To Homer Anderson, I, Nancy Peoples, leave my quiet disposition.

I, Craig Richmond, being of sound body?! and mind hereby do will my six feet three and one-half inches to Mr. Knapp who may give it to someone better equipped to play basketball than I. Also I will my complete disinterest in the opposite sex to David Dickson even though, up to now, he has shown no need for it.

I, Carol Roller, leave to my brother Warren my ability to be ready every morning when the bus comes, and to my sister Noreen I leave my battered typewriter.

I, Gilbert Schmidt, leave to Ann Orovary my careful driving habits, my ability to charm women to Buddy Wilkinson, and to Harvey Luther I leave some pencils to replace those I've taken from him.

To Mary Lee Franz, I, George Schultz, leave my quiet disposition, and to Sylvia Owry I leave my place in the library sixth period.

I, Ralph Seneff, leave my ability to elude work to Betty Lepke.

I, Delmarcia Short, leave my mononucleoses to any healthy junior, my thin blouse to Phylliss Stallard, and to Beverly McAllister five minutes of cuss words without repeating one.

To Prudence Leatherwood, I, Franklin Snow, leave my ability to get to school three minutes late. My easy going disposition I leave to Shirley Burt.

I, Linda Sommer, leave to Marla Kay Powers my dreams for the future and to Myrtle Spangler, my driving ability.

I, Kathleen Spickard, leave my quiet nature to some of the girls who are in need of it at times.

To Russell Lee, I, Elmer Strodbeck, leave my basketball prowess and my number 13 shoes to Carolyn Burnette. My trusty Chevy goes with me to face the cold, cold world.

To George Whalen, I, James Symes, leave my space in the school parking area for his car.

To Robert Bruner, I, Helen Tetzell, will my red sweater to see if he can get a petition from the girls as I received from the boys.

I, Eugene Vann, leave to Walter Starcher all my bobby pins and curlers to see if they will make his hair as wavy as they did mine.

I, Mickie Wilks, do hereby will my job as sports editor to anyone with ambition enough to attend all football and basketball games and my temper which allows me to start a fight with anyone to Frank Zodnik.

To the juniors we, the senior class, leave the hope that they will be the first class to graduate from the new Revere High School.

To the sophomores we leave the privilege of setting new traditions and breaking old ones.

To the freshmen we leave all the fun we have had through our entire high school career. We also leave the tried and true teachers who are to be treated gently.

In witness thereof we do hereby affix our signs and seals this 24th day of May, 1952.

The Senior Class of 1952

REVERE HIGH SCHOOL

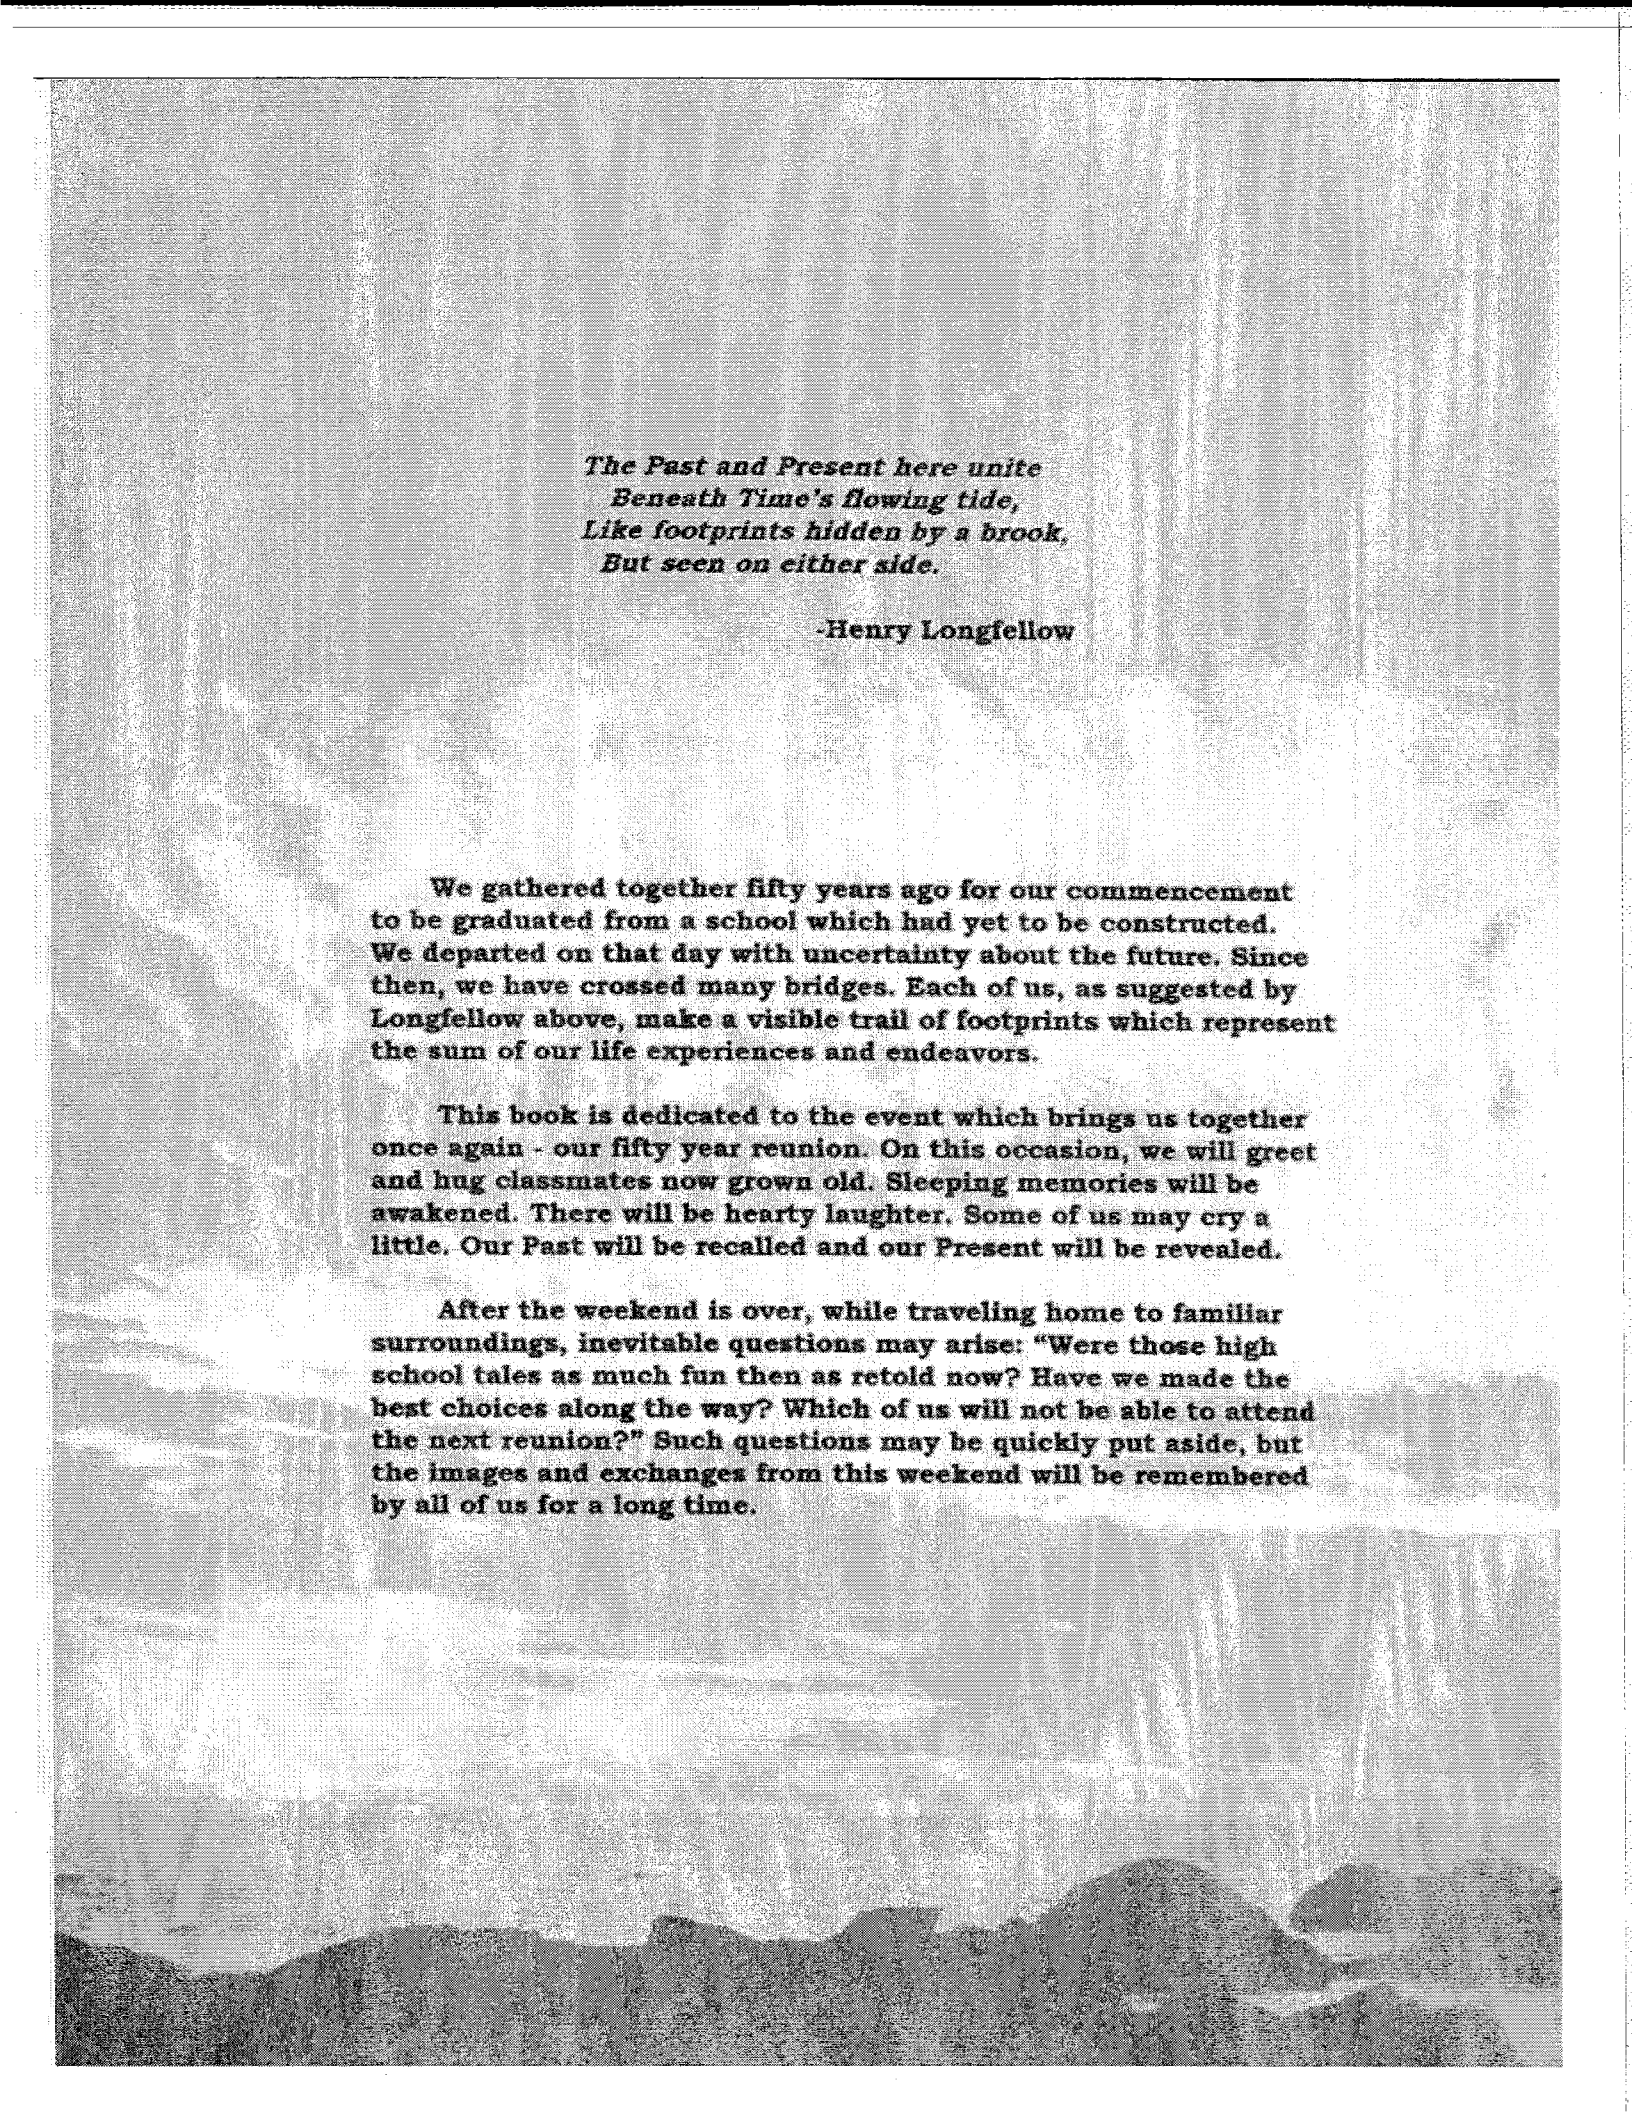

CLASS OF 1952

MINUTEMEN

JUNE 8, 2002 WEEKEND

50 YEAR REUNION

*The Past and Present here unite
Beneath Time's flowing tide,
Like footprints hidden by a brook,
But seen on either side.*

-Henry Longfellow

We gathered together fifty years ago for our commencement to be graduated from a school which had yet to be constructed. We departed on that day with uncertainty about the future. Since then, we have crossed many bridges. Each of us, as suggested by Longfellow above, make a visible trail of footprints which represent the sum of our life experiences and endeavors.

This book is dedicated to the event which brings us together once again - our fifty year reunion. On this occasion, we will greet and hug classmates now grown old. Sleeping memories will be awakened. There will be hearty laughter. Some of us may cry a little. Our Past will be recalled and our Present will be revealed.

After the weekend is over, while traveling home to familiar surroundings, inevitable questions may arise: "Were those high school tales as much fun then as retold now? Have we made the best choices along the way? Which of us will not be able to attend the next reunion?" Such questions may be quickly put aside, but the images and exchanges from this weekend will be remembered by all of us for a long time.

We Did It!

Revere Scores 13-0 Upset Over Boston

Upset Over Boston.

Mike McCoy and Dick Pearson, two varsity seniors, ended their high school football days by leading Revere to a 13-0 victory over Boston. With the help of perfect weather and a lot of fight, Revere captured its only win of the season.

The first quarter offered a few fumbles and punts but no scoring.

The second quarter blew apart, however, when Mike McCoy hit the center of the line, was stopped, and lateraled to Elmer Stradbeck who charged 65 yards to about the 10 yard line. Then Dick Pearson plunged through the line for six points. Mike ran the extra point, and the half ended 7-0.

Athlete Of The Month

by Joan Gorbach

Chosen for A.O.M. honors this issue is Revere's flashy 5'9", 160 pound guard, Chester Gramer. More commonly known as Buddy, he was honored recently by being placed on the All-Summit County League team.

Buddy's favorite sport is football, and although this was his first year he proved to be an asset to the Revere eleven this season.

His versatility was proved by the fact that he played three different positions. He can be easily recognized by his rolled up sleeves. During the Mogadore game, when everyone else present was freezing, his sleeves didn't come down one bit. Football, however, is not the only sport in which he has participated. He played two years of basketball during his sophomore and junior years.

After graduation Chester is planning to attend business school. At the present time, his main interests seem to be his little blue car and a certain Revere High majorette.

Are You Guilty?

By Mickie Wilke

After the first football game on September 14, there were many comments about the team, most of them bad.

Some students thought this team was the worst they had ever seen. The reasons they gave were that it was so disorganized and there wasn't any team work.

Just what did they expect? Yes, the team was disorganized, it would be surprising if it wasn't. The team is new with only four experienced men on the squad. The Richfield players haven't played too much football before, so they have much to learn about rules and plays.

Richfield has always been a school for basketball, and there's quite a difference between passing and holding a football.

The Bath players are a bit more experienced, but they haven't mastered working together.

You cannot expect championship play in the first few games, but when the boys get to know each other on the field, football wise, Revere is going to have a team of which it can be proud.

Athlete of The Month

by Don Case

Dick Pearson, six foot one inch, 185 pound senior with crew-cut brown hair and blue eyes is this month's sport personality.

Dick has turned in a remarkable performance as quarterback since returning to the lineup, and shows signs of doing even better in the remaining games. He was forced to miss the first three games of the season because of the three broken toes he acquired in the Akron Rubber Bowl.

Dick is not only a good backfield man but arouses the team's spirit during the game. He has been on the football team four years and has won four letters.

Although football is his favorite sport, you will probably find him on the first five in basketball this year, as he was a starter for Bath last year. On the court Dick isn't the flashy type of player and won't make too many points, but he is very cool-headed and is used as a "setup man." He has won two letters in basketball.

Beside football and basketball, he has won letters in baseball and track.

His chief interests in addition to sports are his blue convertible and Janet Wells, which put together would probably consume most of his spare time.

Worst Team in History, Mickie? NO WAY!!

Losing Season For Football Team.....But A Rousing Finish

Tetzel Reigns at Football Dance

With Helen Tetzel, senior, being crowned Homecoming Queen for 1951, the Homecoming Dance was held in the Richfield School Auditorium, Saturday evening, November 17. Elaine Hartman, senior, was the crownor, and the queen's attendants were Joan Gorbach, senior; Pat Smulbach, junior; and Nancy Padlock, sophomore.

The members of the football team had the honor of choosing the queen and naming her crownor and attendants. The team also selected Mike McCoy, senior, as their representative to present an orchid to Helen.

Bob Cole and his orchestra provided the music for the dance which lasted from 8:30 to 11:30. The coronation took place during the intermission, and the cheerleaders, majorettes, and members of the football team were also honored at that time.

The dance, which had been sponsored by the Student Council in past years, was sponsored this year by the cheerleaders and majorettes with Mrs. Jane Bolin and Mr. George Bayling acting as advisors. Despite the adverse weather conditions, the dance was considered a success by those who attended.

Present students of Revere made up the majority of those who attended, but former students of Bath and Richfield Schools plus a large number of the faculty were present.

Revere Has Three On All-Star Summit Football Team

With Mike McCoy and Phil Arnold on the All Summit League first team and Chester Cramer on the second team, Revere was quite well represented for a not too successful football season. Jim Gearhart of Monrovia walked off with the captain's position, along with eight of his team mates who placed on the first two teams.

They outnumbered Twinsburg, the league leaders by four men on the Summit Dream teams. Boston also played five men on the teams.

second team was taken by Chester Cramer, a senior. He has played football, his favorite sport, since his sophomore year. He also played basketball in his sophomore and junior years and was on the baseball team the first two years of high school. He said he was honored to have been chosen for the team.

The Colors We Follow

Revere's varsity basketball cheerleaders are dressed in all white corduroy one piece suits this season. Scarlet and royal blue add patriotic color to the Chinese collar and to the cuffs on the short sleeves. The letters R. H. S. in scarlet Chinese lettering are sewn onto the right side of the waist. Red and white saddle shoes complete the varsity cheerleading squad's outfit.

The Reserve cheerleaders chose an all red corduroy, one piece suit. The sleeves are short and the skirt flared. Red and white saddle shoes are used to carry out Revere's red, white, and blue motif.

about winning their trophies, the boys replied:

Gene Vann—"I was very happy to receive it. I wasn't sure who was going to get it. There was some excellent blocking done by a lot of other fellows."

Mike McCoy: "I'm non-committal."

Chester Cramer: "I appreciate it very much, for when I was playing I didn't think of winning. They were very liberal in giving the ones they did. It's too bad everybody couldn't have gotten one."

Dick Pearson: "I was honored to receive my trophy, it couldn't have gone to a better guy."

Bob Bruner: "No comment." Elmer Strodbeck: "I was very happy to have won it. Because I wanted it. I think it should be continued because it encourages the players to play harder in order to win a trophy."

First Football Banquet Held

Revere held its first football banquet Friday evening, November 30, at Bath Gym.

The banquet began with a turkey dinner and all the fixings. There was a lack of speech making and no main speaker, for the idea of the banquet was to eat.

Next the football letter winners were named. They were Chester Cramer, Norman Clark, Dick Pearson, C. S. Mike McCoy, Gene Vann, and Elmer Strodbeck, seniors; Bob Bruner, Lawton Vaughan, Carl Oglesby, and Frank Zadnik, juniors; and Phil Arnold, Bill Brunskill, Bob Runbauch, Dick Feiber, Dave Brewer, and Mark Spickard, sophomores.

The letter winners for varsity cheerleaders were Elaine Hartman, Helen Tetzel, Betty Lenke, Pat Smulbach, and Janet Kiser.

Six Revere players won trophies. Elmer Strodbeck for best tackle; Mike McCoy, best defensive back; Dick Pearson, best defensive lineman; Gene Vann best blocker; Bob Bruner, best first year player; and Chester Cramer, most self-improved player.

Mike McCoy was selected as honorary football captain at an election immediately after the banquet.

Revere Loses Preview to Hudson

With a score of 12-0, the Hudson High griders defeated Revere in the 1951 Summit County Football Preview held at the Akron Rubber Bowl, Tuesday evening, September 11, before an approximate crowd of 4,000 spectators.

A long pass and a bad center on a fourth down for Revere set up Hudson's touchdown. The Revere running attack just couldn't break away and go.

In the early minutes of the game Revere started to move with two first-downs, but they were stopped and forced to punt on Hudson's 40 yard line. This happened all through the game.

When Hudson got the ball early in the game they ran a few plays for a first down, then threw a pass from their own 40, caught on Revere's 30, and ran the rest of the way for a touchdown.

Hudson's second touchdown was scored when on fourth down, with Revere in punt-formation, a bad center was snapped and Tom Goodson was caught back in his own territory. Hudson then took the ball and succeeded in running it over the goal line.

The heart-breaking point of the game for Revere was when Hudson fumbled a punt deep in their 20 and Revere recovered. The play was then called back because of back-field-in-reason against Revere.

It had not been for the fact that Revere would have had a good chance of scoring and winning Hudson from retreating their second touchdown, thus tying the game.

All-County Team

Richfield High's Rockets placed two players on the All-Summit League basketball team. They were Elmer Strodbeck, 6'2" center who ended the season as the county's second leading scorer, and Gene Lepke, who played a guard position. Lepke had an average of 18.4 points per game, from a scoring guardship that led to many of his victories this season. Both players are juniors, and next year should be a better and greater team for them and Revere High School.

Gene Lepke, a center, who was the marksmanship of the county's champion team, was voted by the coaches as the county's outstanding player. Lepke's position is that of a guard.

Other members who were elected to the All-Summit league were Steve Kovach, a junior at Boston High School who plays forward position, and Harvey Martin, a senior at Mansfield High School, as the other forward.

"They'll never draft me. I'll join first," states Revere's high scoring center, Elmer Strodbeck.

Elmer came to Richfield School in the fourth grade, spent three years at Richfield High, and his senior year at Revere.

Having been placed on the All-County basketball team three years, Elmer hopes this season will make it four.

As a freshman he was picked for the third team, the second team when he was a sophomore, and last year he made the first team. He won a trophy along with that honor last year.

The main high-light of this season so far was when he scored 31 of the 50 points when Revere beat Ravenna.

Elmer won a trophy in football this season for being the best tackle. He has played football for two years.

The center-center on the baseball team, when baseball isn't rained out, is also this six foot, two inch, 202 pound senior.

Elmer has no plans for college but hopes to become a farmer.

Strodbeck Leads Scorers With 389

This year Elmer Strodbeck, junior, scored the highest number of points made by any one basketball player with 389 points and an average of 31.5 points per game.

Gene Lepke and Dan Emmett, captain of the Richfield Rockets, had averages of 11.5 and 5.3 points per game for second and third place honors at Richfield.

In the total scoring the opposing teams had 727 points while Richfield had only 696, yet Richfield won 19 games and dropped 8.

This year Elmer Strodbeck tallied the most number of points ever made in a tournament game when Richfield played Copley. Elmer scored 28 points that game and broke the Summit County record of 27 points which was set by Bob Hardy, another Richfield player, along with Steve Kovach from Boston.

During the tournaments Elmer averaged 19 points with Gene Lepke right behind with 11.5 points a game.

Rockets Come Back To Beat Boston

Richfield Varsity played and defeated Boston, a greatly improved team from last year, in the second league game of the season on Tuesday, December 12.

After being behind until the third quarter, Richfield pulled in front and were leading in the latter part of the fourth, but with only a little over a minute and a half left, Boston took the lead 51-50.

Boston then tried a freeze, but Elmer Strodbeck made the ball twice and sank two quick baskets before time ran out, making the final score 64-51 in favor of Richfield.

Boston's big gun, Kovach, had a total of 17 points, but his opponent, Elmer Strodbeck, had 28 points to his credit.

The score by quarters was first quarter, 11-14 in favor of Boston, second, 17-32 in favor of Boston, third was tied 41-41, and the fourth, 51-51 in favor of Richfield.

Hudson Bows to Rockets

Richfield beat Hudson with a score of 57-44 on Thursday evening, December 21, at Richfield.

With the help of Elmer Strodbeck's 26 points and good playing Richfield defeated Hudson. Richfield took the lead at the beginning and held it throughout the whole game. Gil Schmidt, who had come up from the reserve team, made a very good showing to help Richfield along.

CLASS OF 52 HAS JOYFUL REUNION

Skip Gladwin, DelMarcia Short Blanchard, Mike McCoy

More than half of Revere High School's first senior class met for dinner at Helen and Spencer Freeman's house on Revere Road last month to celebrate the 30th anniversary of their graduation.

Reminiscences flew thick and fast about the days when the present high school was under construction and students were bussed back and forth between the existing buildings at Bath Center and on 303. The class of 1952 never attended classes in the new school but it left behind a very visible class memorial. Lacking funds to purchase something traditional for their alma mater, classmates convinced construction workers to put a large boulder unearthed in the excavation for the building out on the school lawn on the corner of Everett and Revere Roads. The "Revere Rock" was the target of many a midnight painting party as each class put its year of graduation on it in large numerals. When the administration decided the monument was too much of a nuisance and broke it up and buried it in the 1960's, members of the class of 1952, cooperating with another class, found a new rock and installed it in the traditional spot. It still receives several coats of paint annually.

DelMarcia Short Blanchard came from Placentia, California; Stephen "Skip" Gladwin from Morgantown, West Virginia; Linda Sommer Squires from Columbus; Wanda Bartholomew McCoy and husband Mike, who was class president, from Berea; Steve Merkle from Bay Village; and Craig Richmond from Cincinnati, joined local classmates. All enjoyed seeing Revere's first principal, and for many years, executive head, Harold Schweisberger; teachers Jack Harr, Doug Bonney, Evelyn Bruner, Virginia Hejduk Ocacek and Baker and custodian Buzzy Davis.

Vann's Attracts 'Who's Who' at Coffee Break

by Florence Russell

There are less than a dozen counter stools at Vann's Pharmacy, and all are occupied shortly after 9:00 a.m. Behind the counter, Joy Selby pushes up her sleeves and, smiling, pours the coffee. The parking spaces along the drugstore's two sides quickly fill with cars. When someone enters, those already seated swivel about on the squeaky stools to nod and call greetings. Those present read like a "Who's Who" in Richfield government: trustee Dick Rauch, councilman Dave Howard, Council President John Hill, Dog Warden Bill Stang, Service Director Larry Wilson and Fire Chief Russ English, are often visitors.

One morning, so the story goes, someone phoned the town hall and asked for an official. The caller was told, "Oh, it's only 9:15. He's probably still at Vann's."

Chances are, you'll find whomever you want, on any given morning, at Vann's.

"If you have politicians in here, naturally you have a place to get hold of them," Vann said. He explained that the coffee break is a way for the public to voice their opinions to government officials present.

"If they (officials) minded it, they wouldn't come in," Vann added. "Sometimes they don't."

Joy admitted, "We kid them about council meetings."

Resident Jerry Martinak summed up the atmosphere: "Council meeting at nine; jokes from 10 to 11."

The coffee counter has been a part of the drugstore since the early '50s when it was Young's Pharmacy. (For three years previous it was owned by a man named Title.) Vann worked for Young as a pharmacist beginning in 1957. A Revere High graduate and a Medina resident, Vann bought the store from Young in 1970. He changed the name but not the atmosphere. The morning coffee gatherings, which started on Sundays, quickly spread to the other days of the week.

Besides government officials, Vann's is a meeting place for Richfield's older residents, such as John Hart, Buell Davidson, Lester Ware, Elmer Knopp, Don Golding, Genevieve Richardson (who used to work at there) and Russ English's mother. They walk or drive over regularly.

Mrs. English and Mrs. Richardson have their particular seats along the counter, according to red-haired Grace Horn who pours the afternoon coffee. If those seats are occupied when the women enter, Grace said, those persons get up hurriedly with the comment, "Here, I was saving this for you."

The older residents, Vann explained, come in to see people, meet people, to chit-chat,

The "congenial host" Gene Vann chats with Jim Gargard.

just for something to do.

Resident Diana Bergman explained further. "It (Vann's) is a very important social part of these men's lives. They talk about everything from arthritis to what goes on at Town Hall."

Grace said she enjoys listening to the "old timers" talk--about how things were years ago, about how the buildings looked. "I shouldn't say they are old," Grace said, "but more wiser than what we are. We can learn so much from them."

She might have been speaking of Buell Davidson, who helped incorporate Richfield
