Notes: "First, I would like to thank the selection committee and community for this honor, as well as congratulate all of the other talented athletes in this year's induction class! I would like to offer a sincere thank you to all of the wonderful people who have assisted me through my athletic and academic journey at Revere and the University of Dayton. I would not be the player or person I am without the guidance and encouragement from all of my coaches throughout the years – I truly appreciate everything you have taught me about the game of basketball! A special thanks to my high school coach of 4 years, Kory Rorabaugh, for always being supportive and pushing me to be the best I can be, and reminding me to find joy in the game and make the most of the high school experience. I would also like to share this honor with my awesome teammates and friends, both at RHS and UD, for helping me to create countless irreplaceable memories and having so much fun both on and off the court. Lastly, I would like to thank my family, especially my parents, for all they have done for me. I feel so fortunate to have been born into a group of great athletes and even better people. You guys are my rock and I am forever thankful for your unconditional support!"
