

SAMPLE LANGUAGE ACQUISITION PROGRAMS OFFERED IN CALIFORNIA SCHOOL DISTRICTS

For Reference Only

	Structured English Immersion	Dual Language Immersion	One Way Immersion	Developmental Bilingual	Transitional Bilingual
Program Goals	Proficiency in English Academic achievement	Bilingualism and Biliteracy Academic Achievement (English and target language) Sociocultural Understanding	Proficiency in English and other language Academic Achievement in English and target language	Bilingualism and Biliteracy Academic Achievement in English and target language Sociocultural Understanding	Proficiency in English Temporary use of native language for literacy and academic instruction Transition to English only by third grade
Classroom Composition	-English learners	-English learners -English only -Initial Fluent Eng. -Reclassified-RFEP	-English only -Initial Fluent Eng. -Reclassified-RFEP	-English learner whose native language is the target language	- English learner whose native language is the target language
Instructional Program Model Options for % of time allocated to each language on a daily basis	Nearly all classroom instruction is in English but with a curriculum and a presentation that is designed for students who are learning English	50/50: 50% in the target language and 50% in English 90/10: 90% in the target language and 10% in English 70/30: 70% in the target language and 30% in English	50/50: 50% in the target language and 50% in English 90/10: 90% in the target language and 10% in English 70/30: 70% in the target language and 30% in English	50/50: 50% in the target language and 50% in English 70/30: 70% in the target language and 30% in English
English Language Development (daily instruction)	Yes, required Designated and Integrated ELD	Yes, required Designated and Integrated ELD	No	Yes, required Designated and Integrated ELD	Yes, required Designated and Integrated ELD
Content taught in Target Language	Academic Subjects English Language	Academic Subjects English and Target Language	Academic Subjects Target Language	Academic Subjects English and Target Language	Academic Subjects English and Target Language