KEY MOMENTS IN OUR HISTORY

1968

Pastor Robert Miller, seven board members, a group of families, and about 100 students came together and Florida Christian School was born.

1998

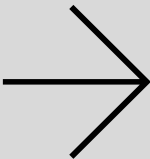

FCS purchased a 16-classroom school building with a 4.5 acre parcel of land. This addition increased the maximum number of students to 1,420.

2014-2019

A campus beautification project brought a new look for our buildings and grounds, along with new classroom furniture, lighting, and technology.

2020-PRESENT

Dr. Jason Harrison joined Florida Christian School as the new Headmaster. FCS continues to be one of the leading private Christian schools in Dade County.
