DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE AND OTHER MATERIALS

POLICY:

The Board recognizes that valuable social, recreational, and educational opportunities are available to families and students through non-profit organizations and governmental entities providing services for students. The District may choose to make information available to students and families about these programs, provided that doing so does not interfere with the educational process.

Non-profit organizations or governmental entities may submit information about activities for students for possible distribution through District channels, but any information distributed must meet certain standards and be approved according to the procedures accompanying this policy.

DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE AND OTHER MATERIALS

PROCEDURES:

Nonprofit organizations and government entities may submit information about activities for students to the Communications & Community Services Department to be considered for electronic distribution.

Lake Stevens School District does not distribute paper flyers from outside organizations or entities.

The district and/or its schools will not distribute materials that:

- A. Are obscene, lewd, or vulgar;
- B. Are libelous;
- C. Contain language that is intimidating, demeaning, harassing, or threatening on the basis of race, religion, creed, color, national origin, age, honorably discharged veteran or military status, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression or identity, marital status, the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, or the use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability;
- D. Promote commercial enterprises;
- E. Promote the violation of existing laws, regulation or ordinances, or official school policy, rules or regulations; or
- F. Proselytize or disparage religious beliefs.

The Communications & Community Services Department will review and determine whether the materials are approved for electronic distribution to students.

Organizations and government entities that approach individual schools with requests to distribute materials to students or families will be directed to the Communications & Community Services Department.

Upon request, schools with available space are authorized, but not required, to post an approved flyer in the school's main office area where families may review it.
