SOLEIL LEVY

The 5th grade team chose Soleil Levy. Soleil is a great example of what it means to be a Nathan Hale Artist. She has participated in many performances, including her leading role in last year's school musical, "101 Dalmatians", and performances for Chorus and A Capella. Soleil comes to school every day ready to learn and is a great role model for other 5th graders by following our schoolwide expectations of being cooperative, responsible, respectful, and safe. Soleil is always eager to lend a helping hand and is kind to everyone she comes across. It's due to these reasons, and many more, that we selected Soleil as Nathan Hale Arts Magnet School's student of the month.

Keep up the good work Soleil!

Reynolds, to celebrate Dot Day. They also will be working on an assignment to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month, and in Sylvie's advanced art class, we will be drawing crystals inspired by Peruvian artist Lizeth Prieto, which focuses on creating form with value and varying tints of color.

ARGENTINA DUVERGE

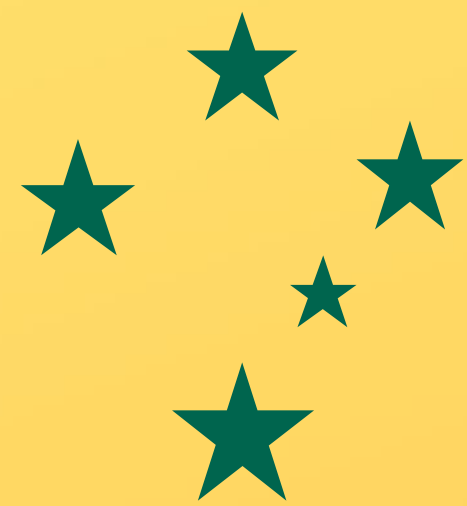

Argentina's journey to where she stands today is nothing short of inspirational. Just over three years ago, in July 2020, amidst the turbulence and challenges of a global pandemic, she made the brave decision to move from the Dominican Republic to Connecticut. With a spirit of resilience, she immediately plunged into ESL classes just two months after her arrival. Starting from the beginner level, Argentina has soared through the ranks, and now, she proudly stands amongst our advanced learners. Her progress speaks volumes about her dedication and her zest for mastering the English language.

However, Argentina's story is not just about linguistic milestones. In the Dominican Republic, she was a beacon of support and guidance as a systemic therapist for families, couples, and youth. Today, while she enriches our community as a neurodiverse paraprofessional at AMMS, her aspirations remain high. Her burning ambition is to once again offer her expertise in her field in this new country she calls home. And for that, she understands the value of fluency in English to break down barriers and bridge gaps.

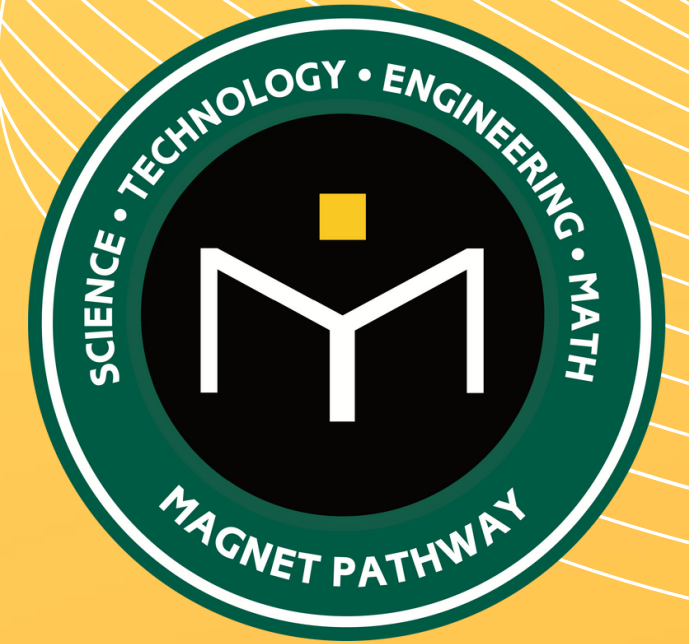

On behalf of everyone here, I am deeply honored to present the ESL Student of the Month award to you, Ms. Argentina Duverge. May your journey ahead be filled with success, and may you continue to inspire those around you.

Congratulations!
