

Why Does Mr. Mosgrove Wear White Shirts?

Mosgrove Issues Challenge to Detectives

Staff Member Of The Week

Mr. Michael

Mr. Mosgrove issued a challenge to detectives today: "Find out why I wear white shirts!" Detectives accepted the challenge, and state that they expect to finish the case in a couple of weeks. New theories will be placed in the newspaper as they develop. Mr. Mosgrove says he will "drop them some clues along the way." Readers will be updated on the progress of the detectives weekly.

Interviewer: How would you handle a situation where you break something while cleaning?

Mr. Michael: That's a very good question, well first of all I would pick up the mess, then I would go tell the teacher or student exactly what happened. You always gotta be accountable for your actions. Always respectful and responsible even if you break it

Interviewer: What safety precautions do you take while cleaning with chemicals

Mr. Michael: A lot of times I wear gloves and coverings on my arms but mainly I just loot them and make sure there not poisonous to inhale

Interviewer: In the hallway do you like running in to students and having conversations with them

Mr. Michael: I'll be honest with you, No matter what kind of day i'm having an interaction with a student always makes it better

Interviewer: What cleaning equipment are you familiar with?

Mr. Michel: So like a mop, a broom, dusters, there's so many different kinds of cleaning equipment

Interviewer: What grade is the easiest to clean up after?

Mr. Michael: Honestly, I've been thinking about this for the past few days, So I want to say 3rd grade is the easiest in the cafeteria and 2nd grade is the easiest in the room
