Police Officer School Visits

Over the next few weeks, you may hear your children talking about student safety and visits from our School Resource Officer, Genna Werner. Officer Werner will interact with students in grade level assemblies talking about age-appropriate safety practices. Students will have fun asking and answering questions while learning about habits and behaviors that will keep them safe at school, such as honoring other students' personal space and using good words.

Oakbrook Yearbook

Last year, one of our Oakbrook parents, Patricia Sochacki, did an outstanding job of designing our Oakbrook Yearbook. She is looking forward to being coordinator again this year, but is looking for at least one other parent to help her. It is a fun opportunity to look through photos from the school year and organize them into yearbook pages, so please consider helping. Please reach out to Dr. Ulrich (tulrich@wdsd7.org) if you are interested in helping Mrs. Sochacki.

Please Keep Toys at Home

Reminder, students' toys should remain at home. Not only do toys at school create distraction from learning, students get very upset when their toys are lost. The school is unable to perform investigations regarding lost toys. Thank you for your understanding and support on this matter.

Extra Clothing at School PLEASE

We request that families send at least one extra set of clothes to school to be kept in their child's locker. When students have accidents, the extra clothes prevent the school from calling parents to bring in clean clothes in the middle of the school day.

PTO Sign-up

The Oakbrook/Westview Parent Teacher Organization (OB/WV PTO) is looking for volunteers for some upcoming events. Please access this link to see where you can offer a small amount of your time. The OB/WV PTO thanks you!
