

The Parents'

Playbook

Help Your Tween or Teen
Avoid Online Mistakes

A multi-media presentation to help parents understand today's "Digital Natives"

- Learn about the most common mistakes Middle and High School students make online
- How social media platforms are impacting student mental health, the latest trends and dangers
- How online mistakes can negatively impact school enrollment, athletic recruiting and have legal implications
- How to talk to your child about online safety and privacy
- How you can monitor your child/teen online

Brought to you by:
Carrollwood Day School

Tuesday, November 28, 2023

8:00 am

Name of Room on Campus

Lori W. Smith, Esq.

ZIMMERMAN KISER SUTCLIFFE
Extraordinary Service, Client Driven Results

"As an Education Lawyer, I know the reasons students get suspended and expelled...and today, social media is often involved. Teens need to be smart online, and parents need to be social media savvy to parent teens in the digital world."

Adults Only.
Not appropriate for young children.

Question and Answer session to follow

Lori Smith is a shareholder in the Orlando law firm of Zimmerman, Kiser and Sutcliffe, where she has practiced law since graduating from the University of Florida School of law in 1995. She is a frequent lecturer around the state on social media usage by teens and tweens, and parents of teens. It's Lori's goal to give teens straightforward, timely, real world examples of how social media mistakes can impact their future. Lori also speaks to parents of teens and tweens educating them on the social media habits of teens and the social media violations that can most often impact school enrollment and limit future opportunities.