With much less drama involved than Tuesday's thrilling comeback triumph over visiting Dyersburg, Crockett County's volleyballers continued their winning ways with a straight-set 3-0 bulldozing of Westview at Martin Thursday night.

The Lady Cavaliers notched their 19th victory of the season against just five defeats in a match that allowed Coach Bobby Rawson to liberally use his reserves and also offered the first opportunity for previously injured Keeton Holyfield to see court action. Holyfield was just medically released yesterday after recovering from an arm fracture during the summer.

Crockett's triumph, which featured an onslaught of power slams from a variety of players, improved the Lady Cavs to 6-1 in Region 7, District 13-AA competition. Crockett's district this season is comprised of the Lady Cavs, Dyer County, Dyersburg, Obion County Central, South Gibson County, and Westview. Dyer County is the lone league team to defeat the Lady Cavs, winning a 3-1 decision in their first meeting.

Crockett's next action is a home rematch with Obion County Monday evening at 6:00.
