

HOLDEN ACTIVITIES DEPARTMENT SCHOLARSHIPS

Please fill out application and return to the office by March 1st

These scholarships are given yearly by the Holden R-III School District Activities Department. These scholarships have been created and will be awarded to deserving senior students who have represented Holden High School in athletics and activities. To be a member of interscholastic activities is a privilege that takes a strong commitment. Students involved in activities know how important their character will be in determining their individual and team's success. They understand the necessity for discipline, and will strive to improve as a person, student and as a teammate.
