Prerequisite Training Certification (MUST BE COMPLETED BEFORE REGISTERING FOR BBDT)

Entry-level school bus drivers must be taught to drive a school bus before enrolling in the beginning school bus driver course. No person will be issued a White BBDT Course Enrollment Card allowing them to drive a school bus with passengers until they have completed all FMCSA Entry Level Driver Training (ELDT) requirements with a qualified trainer that includes the completion of a DOT physical, a DOT drug test, criminal history check, driving record check, and the attainment of the minimum of a Class B Commercial Driver's License (CDL) with Passenger (P) and School Bus (S) endorsements, and a Chauffeur's License.

The White BBDT Course Enrollment card issued will expire 10 days after the training program for which they are scheduled to attend, not to exceed 90 days. Once a course enrollment card has been created, the expiration date cannot be altered and a second card is not available. Please refer to Public Act 187, of 1990 Section 51. Course Enrollment Cards are created and mailed within 24 hours of the registration's arrival. Email copies are available and sent with a confirmation of the class.

By signing this form, you certify the driver has completed the standardized lessons as outlined in the Michigan Department of Education's School Bus Driver Training Program, and is prepared to enter the Beginning School Bus Driver Course.
