HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

Super Secret Detective Agency (SSDA) Delivery to Mrs. Bennett's class!

Mrs. Bennett's first grade class received a special delivery today from the S.S.D.A. (Super Secret Detective Agency). Deputy Detrick was on the case to help deliver word detective badges to these hard working first grade students. These students have spent the past few weeks earning their badges by learning how to be a word detective using strategies to solve and understand tricky words in their reading. The S.S.D.A has been watching them closely and has decided that Mrs. Bennett's class has what it takes to be official word detectives. Congratulations to these amazing first graders! Keep up the great work!

📣 Did You Know 📣

Parent Teacher Conference Day - November 20th

Free Child Care for Conferences

Would you like to have your child occupied during your conference so you can focus on the conversation? The Family Resource Center is willing to provide child care at EBH during parent-teacher conferences on Monday, November 20th. Children will need to be dropped off at EBH (PS students included) 5-10 mins prior to parent conference time and picked up within 5-10 minutes of conference end time. There are limited slots available. Please call the DPS or EBH main office to reserve a time slot.

Let's Talk Reading!

Feel free to stop down in the library Monday the 20th between 12:00pm and 7:15pm to have reading questions answered. What are sight words? Snap words? High Frequency Words? Questions about letters, keywords and sounds? How do you build comprehension and most of all a LOVE OF READING? Learn about reading strategies and how to support your young reader! The library doors will be open and I will be here to share my experience as a parent and a teacher of young readers for over 25 years.
