LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

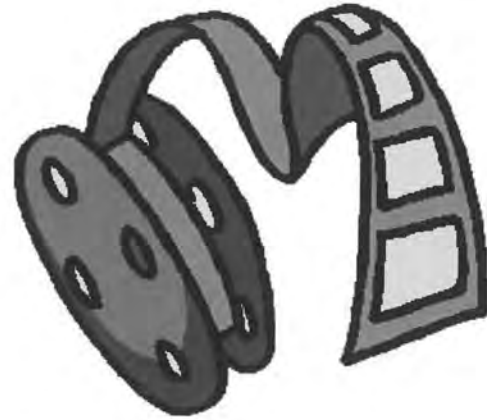

THAT'S A WRAP!

WHY HAVE A MOVIE THEME? JUST ABOUT EVERY PART OF A MOVIE IS TIED IN WITH LIFE AT SCHOOL. THERE IS PLENTY OF COMEDY, DRAMA, ADVENTURE, SUSPENSE AND EVEN A LITTLE BIT OF HORROR OCCURRING WITHIN EACH CLASS EVERY DAY.

LIKE IN THE MOVIES, INCARNATE WORD ACADEMY HAS A DIRECTOR, PRODUCERS, A CAST AND CREW. WHEN ALL COMBINED, A MASTERPIECE

IS CREATED THAT WITHOUT A DOUBT WILL GO DOWN IN CINEMATIC HISTORY AS ONE OF THE BEST FILMS OF ALL TIME.

A GOOD MAJORITY OF THE STUDENT BODY SPENT A GREAT AMOUNT OF TIME WATCHING MOVIES, WHETHER IT WAS AT THE THEATRE, ON THE COUCH OR EVEN EXPERIENCED IN REAL LIFE. ALMOST EVERY STUDENT CAN RELATE TO A MOVIE IN SOME WAY OR ANOTHER.

Team America: World Police

Mission: Protect, guide and teach

The faculty is known for their strength and guidance. United together, administrators and teachers made up a phenomenal, yet forceful team. Through the leadership of teachers, administrators and school board members, everything ran smoothly as planned on a daily basis. A special thanks goes out to leaders Sister Anna Marie Espinosa, Sister Maria Irma Gonzalez, Mr. Gerald Lugaresi and all the IWA teachers who made this school year one to remember.

Can't Hardly Wait

"There is fate, but it only takes you so far, because once you're there, it's up to you to make it happen," said the angel in "Can't Hardly Wait" to one of the characters when he was contemplating whether or not to take a risk.

This is also good advice for the senior class. They've made it this far, they finally graduated. It has taken them four years to accomplish something that only takes a matter of seconds to receive.

Throughout their high school years, they have shared many memories, and gained lots of friends along the way. After this year, they will all go their separate ways.

Now it is up to them to decide the next step of their journey. Cheers to the class of 2005! We will never forget the experiences we shared with you at IWA.

Life or Something Like It

Destiny is what you make of it. As the seniors' high school career came to an end, they remembered all the good times they shared with each other. Through trials and tribulations, the class came together and supported one another. As they move on, they will always have the memories.

Look Who's Talking Now

It seems like just yesterday that these seniors were in diapers, and learning to talk, but now they're all grown up. They've certainly matured throughout these 4 years, but to their parents they'll always be their babies. The years sure have gone by fast!

Someone Like You

"There are a few things sadder than watching someone walk away after they've left you," said Jane Goodale (Ashley Judd) in the movie "Someone Like You," when reminiscing about the special person in her life.

This quote is also true as we say goodbye to the seniors. Even though they are leaving, each will be remembered for their unique qualities.

Dazed & Confused...

The junior class might be described as "Dazed and Confused" because this is the time when they should be making big decisions about their future. They may be getting a hint of senioritis or be confused about what college they will attend.

Whatever the case is, the juniors made the most out of their year. Although it will be hard to say "check ya later" to the seniors, these juniors are ready to take over the seniors' duties of ruling the school.

Finding Nemo

Entering into the first year of high school can be described as starting an adventure. It's like little fish being dropped into a big sea; the experience can be scary and exciting all at the same time, and to the freshmen, being a small fish in a very large ocean can seem a little overwhelming.

"Just keep swimming. Just keep swimming. Just keep swimming, swimming, swimming. What do we do? We swim, swim."

In "Finding Nemo," Marlin and Dori kept on going, no matter what dangers they encountered, and so have the freshmen. They just kept swimming and swimming, exploring unfamiliar waters and dodging the bigger fish and sharks finally getting through their first year of high school.

THE LITTLE RASCALS

UNLIKE THE LITTLE RASCALS ALL MEMBERS OF THE STUDENT BODY ARE INVITED AND ENCOURAGED TO PARTICIPATE IN SCHOOL ORGANIZATIONS. WHETHER YOU'RE INTO SCHOOL SPIRIT OR MATH, FILM OR ASIAN CULTURES, THERE'S SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE. FROM DECORATING THE HALLS TO RUNNING CANNED FOOD DRIVES, EACH CLUB DOES SOMETHING DIFFERENT TO ADD TO THE WHOLE IWA FAMILY.

The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen...and Women

Allan Quartermain, Captain Nemo, and the Invisible Man are just a few who make up the League of Extraordinary Gentlemen. In the movie, the League uses their special talents and abilities, such as becoming invisible, to defeat the villainous M. Although the National Honor Society didn't defeat villains or become invisible, they did work hard to make their power for good felt. With character, leadership, scholarship, and service, the NHS fulfilled the honor code.

Music of the Heart

Tri-M is derived from the society's original name, Modern Music Masters. In order to be selected to this honor society, students have to show scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

Members continual interest and desire for musical knowledge throughout the year, encouraged appreciation for musical performance.

The society's president, Kayla Burrow, helped those interested in music, appreciate the idea that "music is the art of your heart."

Senior Analicia Fernandez announces the new TRI-M members for the 2005-2006 school year at awards night.

Napoleon Dynamite

Vote for Pedro.

"If you vote for me, all your wildest dreams will come true," said Pedro in "Napoleon Dynamite."

Like Pedro, the Student Council worked hard to improve the school. They didn't make any wild dreams come true but they did work to make the school a better place. From planning the Powder Puff football game and dances, to organizing Movie Night, the student council was everywhere! Organized, efficient and hard working, they got the job done.

Seniors Sarah Jackson and Elizabeth Loa take a break from making popcorn for movie night to sit back and talk.

School Spirit

What better way to keep school spirit alive than through the Spirit Club. From making posters to decorating the school, and helping with the Veterans Day ceremony, the Spirit Club has done it all. Throughout the year they boosted spirit in every student and helped make school events a little more enjoyable.

Mr. Lugaresi begins the Veterans Day ceremony by speaking about our brave soldiers, past and present. (top right) Seniors Ashley Wang and Sara Trevino listen to the speakers at the Veterans Day ceremony.

Analyze This

You might be a scientist if... you eat Sloppy Joes every other Friday. If you analyze what this means, then you probably attended Science Club meetings. During Science Club, students enjoyed a good meal and the discussion of science topics. Science Club members ended the year by volunteering at the Earth Day fair, where they helped others learn about different aspects of science.

Patch Adams

The Medical Club has been working around the philosophy much like the one of Harold Gould (Arthur Mendelson) in the movie "Patch Adams."

"See what no one else sees. See what everyone chooses not to see... out of fear, conformity or laziness. See the world anew each day!"

This is the main goal of the club. By going on field trips and having speakers at their meetings, members have learned new things this year. Now they look at life with a new appreciation of medicine and the people who work to ensure the well being of others.

Senior Christina Lopez and junior Eric Busker watch curiously as a man undergoes the process of donating blood, while visiting the Coastal Bend Blood Center.

The dissection of cats was a helpful and fun way for students to get a hands on lesson of animal and human anatomy.

The Incredibles

The Octagon Club truly acted like a superhero. The incredible deeds they've done such as cleaning beaches, conducting toy drives, and making Easter baskets for children were examples of their heroic acts of kindness.

Mona Lisa Smile

For some, art is one of the most enjoyable classes at Incarnate Word. For that reason, many students join the Art Club. From simple craft projects, to detailed drawings and trips to Art Museums, student artists took part in many exciting activities throughout the year.

Mulan

"The flower that blooms in adversity is the most rare and beautiful of them all."

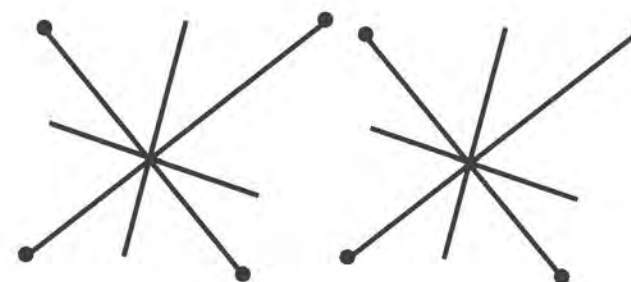

Even though the Asian Cultures Club is new, it is unlike any other organization. Just like Mulan, in the movie, the Asian Cultures Club strove throughout the year to bring the pride and beauty of the Asian cultures to the IWA students and help them appreciate a background different from their own.

Passport to Paris

The French Club had a busy year, full of fun activities and events. Some activities included taking a trip to a french bakery and selling baked goods. ED WOOD

"FILMMAKING IS NOT ABOUT THE TINY DETAILS. IT'S ABOUT THE BIG PICTURE."

Cool Runnings

"Cool Runnings" is the story of Jamaican runners who competed in Olympic bobsledding. No matter how much trouble or doubt they came across, they never gave up. Just like the Jamaicans, the angel cross country team never gave up. Rain or shine, these angels gave it their all to cross the finish line.

Freshman Sandy Davila has a good time while running her race.

You Got Served

"If you want respect, you got to take it."

This year's VOLLEYBALL team did exactly that, demanding respect from every opponent. Through the season they worked hard, got stronger, and by the end they had come together as a team.

Julie Romano and Mackenzie Allison focuses on the ball as it comes back over the net.

The Big Green

“The biggest kick of the year.” Boys soccer is one of the most popular sports at Incarnate Word Academy. With the support from their coaches and from each other, they made a lot of progress throughout the year. Thanks for a great season and good luck next year boys!

Bend it Like Beckham

At the beginning of the year, the girls soccer team thought, "No one can cross a ball or bend it like Beckham."

Jess, from the 2002 movie "Bend it like Beckham," worked hard during practice and used her new skills during the game to create a wonderful season.

Much like Jess, the Lady Angels had doubt in their minds, but their hard work payed off; the Angels began to play just as David Beckham would and made it to the playoffs.

Students watch and cheer on the Lady Angels as they sweep the scoreboard at their last game before playoffs.

Seniors Jeanette Rivera, Eleanor Seger, Mayra Salinas, Jessica Franceschini, and Sarah Jackson are recognized, at the last home game, for their contributions to the soccer team.

Senior Eleanor Seger along with sophomore Erin Sheehan leave the Lady Wildcats in the dust and take the ball all the way to victory.

Hoop Dreams

The IWA boys basketball team worked really hard this season. Whether they won or lost, they always stuck together as a team. Every year, there are thousands of teenage boys who dream of pursuing a professional career in the National Basketball Association. As in the movie, Hoop Dreams, many teenage boys at IWA set their goals and ambitions high, and aim for the top!

Senior Ryan Kirk hugs the ball, in an attempt to keep it from the other team's possession.

Senior Matthew Dennis searches for a fellow teammate to pass the ball to, as he keeps a watchful eye on the opposing player.

Angels in the utfield

The baseball teams wouldn't have come as far as they did if it wasn't for their coaches repeatedly reminding them about the importance of teamwork. In the movie "Angels in the Outfield," George Knox reminded the Anaheim Angels: "If we don't think as a team, we don't play as a team. We can't even lose as a team."

Coach Martinez pumps up the baseball team as they go into their seventh inning in the IWA, Robstown game.

Sophomore Michael Ferri cheers to himself after finishing a long day of summer practice.

Junior Mark Perez jogs around the bases after hitting an in-field homerun that won the game against St. Anthony's.

FEVER PITCH

FROM PLAYING THE GAME, TO PRACTICING AND STRATEGIZING, THE LADY ANGEL SOFTBALL TEAM WORKED VERY HARD. AS IN THE MOVIE "FEVER PITCH," THE LOVE THE GIRLS HAVE FOR THE GAME IS APPARANT. THE TEAM SPENT LONG HOURS PRACTICING, AND IN THE END, THEIR HARD WORK PAID OFF.

Senior Eleanor Seger and junior Sarah Saenz help one another warm up by throwing the ball back and forth.

Wimbledon

Game. Set. Match.

The tennis team worked hard to ace their opponents and reach the top. Trying their best and giving it their all, the tennis team slammed their way through the district competition all the way to state.

Happy Gilmore

Happy Gilmore, played by Adam Sandler, said "Happy learned how to putt, UH-OH!"

Like in "Happy Gilmore," the golf team worked on and developed their skills well enough to compete in several tournaments.

After many hard practices, the golf team ended the season with great success.

Senior Dean Sartoris signs a golf scholarship to the University of the Incarnate Word with his parents by his side.

At an after school practice, junior Jared Pena tries his best while playing a scrimmage game against his fellow team mates.

Swimfan

The dedicated IWA swim team has come a long way and has been very successful. Each member of the team brought his or her own unique abilities to the team, helping to make it stronger. Throughout the season they worked hard and always came out on top.

The Fast and the Furious

As Vin Diesel said, "It doesn't matter if you win by an inch or a mile; winning's winning," and this is exactly what the track and field team believed. No matter if they were running, jumping, or throwing, the team tried their hardest and gave it their all. With the encouragement of Coach Aguilar and Coach Carla, and their dedication to succeed, the track team showed that hard work can go a long way.

Senior John Tamez braces the heat and gives it his all while racing to the finish line.

The track team stretches together and talks about the day's workout at the beginning of practice.

The School of Rock

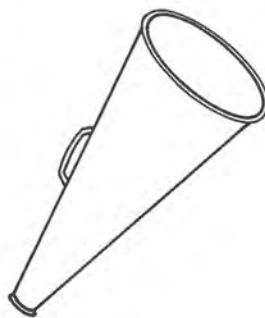

From pep rallies to Spirit Week, the students sure knew how to show their school spirit. The students showed their awesome spirit by dressing up in 80's attire, painting their faces, and supporting the Angel sports teams at games.

What About School Spirit?

The I.W.A. student body helped make pep rallies fun and enjoyable. Sports teams were recognized and supported for their achievements. Also, pep rallies were something to look forward to every month as a way to take a break from a busy schedule.

Senior guys show their school spirit by painting themselves and spraying silly string at the basketball pep rally.

Cheerleaders Breanna Venable, Jennifer Treviño, Jessica Franceschini, and Macy Hunsaker challenge the student body to have the most school spirit.

SAVE THE LAST DANCE

AFTER ALL THE PREPARATION AND HARD WORK PUT INTO MAKING THIS DANCE ORIGINAL AND ENJOYABLE, IT TURNED OUT TO BE A SUCCESS.

WHETHER THEY TOOK A DATE OR NOT, STUDENTS SAVED THE LAST DANCE FOR THEIR OWN FAVORITE.

That Thing You Do

IWA is known for many things that public high schools do not have. The Ocean Bowl Team and the Missions Team are just a couple examples of unique things IWA has to offer, making the things that we do one of a kind.

During Open House, English teachers Mrs. Edwards and Ms. Salinas discuss English curriculum.

Shakespeare in Love

Just like in "Shakespeare in Love," literature is a huge part of Incarnate Word English classes, along with grammar and vocabulary. With the help of the amazing English teachers, all the goals of English were achieved.

Senior Ryan Kirk teaches his 4th period English IV class about mythology.

Ms. Salinas greets a group of girls at Open House and informs them about the English program.

Junior Robert Jakubowski gets lost in thoughts about the lesson in Sr. Eileen's 6th period English III AP class.

A Beautiful Mind

As the movie "A Beautiful Mind" shows, math can be one of the most difficult and challenging subjects to master. From Algebra I to Calculus, the students of Incamate Word showed that they were truly exceptional and hardworking.

During Mr. Eleazer's 3rd period pre-calculus class, seniors Angie Perez and Ashley Wang work on the lesson for the day.

During Open House, Mr. Eleazer helps a parent understand why the math department is so important.

Flubber

Just like in the movie "Flubber," Incarnate Word science is full of experiments. From biology and chemistry, to physics and aquatic science, science classes are fun-filled! Freshman, sophomores, juniors, and seniors have all experienced the amazing world of science.

Physics teacher, Mr. Perrone, along with seniors Natalie Gover and Aaron Gonzalez demonstrate an experiment for Open House.

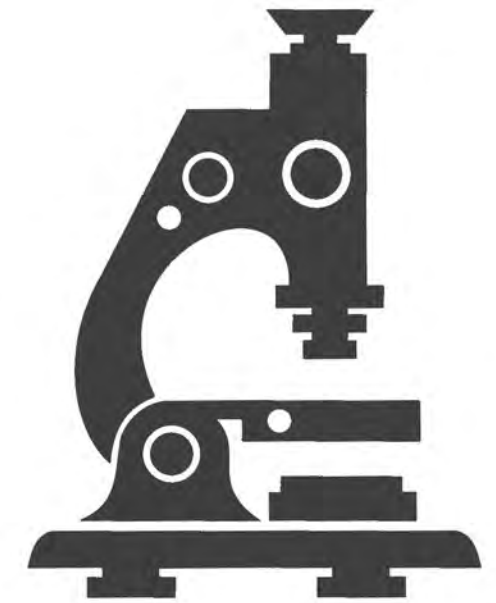

Biology and aquatic science teacher, Mrs. Duzich, grades papers in her classroom, after a long day of teaching.

Freshman Macy Hunsaker gives an exciting presentation on cell parts during Mrs. Duzich's 2nd period biology class.

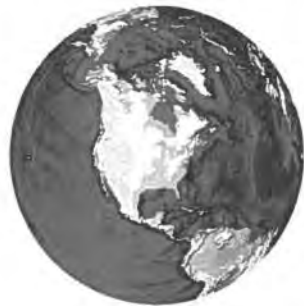

Juniors Drew Shea and Jason Wilks dissect a cat during anatomy to find out the similarities and differences between the bodies of humans and animals.

THE LAND BEFORE TIME

JUST AS LITTLEFOOT, CERA, SPIKE, DUCKY AND PETRIE EXPLORE UNDISCOVERED TERRITORY IN THE MOVIE "THE LAND BEFORE TIME," SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHERS MS. LOZANO, MR. MACHALICK, COACH AGUIAR, AND MR. PENLEY HELP THEIR STUDENTS EXPLORE THE MANY ASPECTS OF THE WORLD.

Mr. Machalick prepares for his afternoon classes while enjoying a cup of coffee before the bell rings for lunch.

Freshman Russell Quick, who volunteered in Ms. Lozano's room on Open House night, holds the whole world in his hand and looks on as parents tour the room.

Senior Matthew Dennis watches as senior Andy Nash shows him different places all over the globe.

Lost in Translation

Foreign language classes at Incarnate Word are fun and exciting aspects of the curriculum. The Latin, French and Spanish teachers kept students from getting lost in the translation while they learned these fascinating foreign languages.

Senior Angel O'Donnell asks Mrs. Collins for help on her French classwork.

Fr. Johnston gives a lecture during Latin class.

Ocean's Eleven

After competing in nationals, the Ocean Bowl team spent some time visiting Louisiana.

Senior Sabrina Imam checks the scoreboard to scope out the competition.

"You'd need at least a dozen guys doing a combination of cons. Off the top of my head, I'd say you're looking at a Bowski, a Jim Brown, a Miss Daisy, two Jethros and a Leon Spinks, not to mention the biggest Ella Fitzgerald ever!"

- Rusty in "Ocean's Eleven"

The Ocean Bowl members definitely aren't con artists but just like the characters in "Ocean's Eleven" they are all experts in what they do. When all their oceanic knowledge and talents are combined, it truly shows how good they are at what they do.

Continuing the tradition from past years, Ocean Bowl members sport their wacky hats at the regional competition.

The Sound of Music

"You have brought music back into my life."

The IWA choir has done an outstanding job bringing music into the lives of all its students. Through every concert and school-wide mass they proved themselves to be true IWA angels.

Mr. Holland's Opus

"Playing music is supposed to be fun. It's about heart, it's about feelings, moving people, and something beautiful, and it's not about notes on a page." This is not only the belief of Mr. Holland but also what our own band members believe. From parades to concerts, they played their hearts out under the skilled direction of Mr. Hernandez.

Band director Mr. Hernandez uses his trumpet to show his class the proper notes to play at practice.

A friend of Mr. Hernandez comes and speaks to the band class about becoming the new drumline instructor.

The band practices their instruments on a sunny Thursday afternoon under the direction of their teacher Mr. Hernandez.

The band poses with the cheerleading squad after performing together in the Buc Days Parade downtown.

An eighth grade member of the band practices his drums during band class in the music hall with a fellow drummer, freshman Richard Saenz.

THE PERFECT SCORE

IN THE MOVIE "A PERFECT SCORE," A GROUP OF STUDENTS SET OUT TO STEAL THE ANSWERS TO THE SATS. THE TAPPS TEAMS HOWEVER DIDN'T NEED TO STEAL ANSWERS TO WIN. WITH HARD WORK, PRACTICE AND DEDICATION THEY CAME OUT VICTORIOUS AND IN FIRST PLACE OVERALL ONCE AGAIN IN THE DISTRICT COMPETITION.

The Passion

Hot, humid days. Dusty roads full of excited children. Group prayers and traditional Mexican foods. These are just a few things that will forever live in the minds of the Mission Group members. During Holy Week, 22 students traveled to different villages in Mexico. Their goal was to spread the word of the Lord. The Mission Group became familiar with many new faces and will remember them for years to come. They got a taste of different cultures and made an impact on the lives of many.

JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR

THE FOUNDATION OF IWA, IN SR. EILEEN, SR. JUDITH, AND SR. PAT'S CLASSES IS THE CATHOLIC RELIGION.

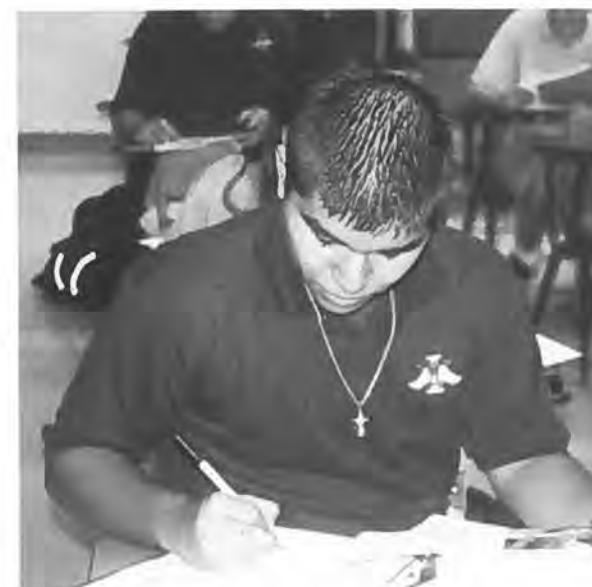

STUDENTS OF ALL FAITHS LEARN HOW TO INCORPORATE GOD INTO EVERYDAY LIFE SITUATIONS.

HAVING WEEKLY AND SCHOOL WIDE MASSES HELPED STUDENTS UNITE, SUPPORT, AND MATURE RELIGIOUSLY THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

Saved 1

NET leaders Benjamin and Kim welcome the juniors and seniors to retreat and talk to them a little bit before the fun begins.

Student retreats were organized a little differently than in the past. The National Evangelist Team led the junior/senior retreat helping to get students excited about their religion. Unlike the movie "Saved," the juniors and seniors were able to talk to each other about their faith without being judged. Everyone was very accepting and the NET team was willing to talk about everyday issues that students have. This definitely helped "save" the juniors and seniors and reminded them to be "filled with Christ's love."

Coach Marzinez stands in the sunshine as he grills hot dogs and hamburgers in the courtyard during retreat for the juniors and seniors.

NET leader Drew points and stares as his fellow team member takes a huge bite into his hamburger.

IWA staff helps serve hot dogs, hamburgers, and all the trimmings to students during retreat day lunch.

Senior boys Ryan Kirk, John Meyer, Andy Nash, Patrick Green, and Matthew Dennis joke around after they eat their lunch.

Keeping the Faith

Freshmen and sophomores were very lucky because they got to spend their retreat day together. With the help of the NET team, students were able to bond and become closer to God through different skits, dramas, and small group meetings. Students learned a lot about themselves and each other during retreat to help them strengthen their faith.

Freshmen and sophomores gather and keep warm in the gym before the retreat day starts.

Leigh Bullen and David Moore have an afternoon chat and get to know each other a little better before partaking in more fun at the retreat.

Two NET team members perform a little drama and lighten up the mood.

Best in Show

Incarnate Word is filled with students who have many different talents and abilities. Just like the dogs in "Best in Show" students are also determined to be number one. At the awards ceremony, students are recognized and honored for their achievements throughout the year.

Valedictorian Andrew Daehne and salutatorian Sabrina Imam are acknowledged for being at the top of their class.

Mr. Nick Jimenez of the Corpus Christi Caller Times speaks about what it takes to earn the newspaper's South Texas Distinguished Scholar award.

Senior missionaries are awarded for their service in Mexico by Sister Judith Marie Saenz.

NHS President, Sarah Jackson, acknowledges members for their achievements by giving each of them a certificate.

Biology teacher, Mrs. Duzich, awards Ocean Bowl's A team medals for winning 8th place in the nation at the Biloxi competition.

After forgetting to give her rose to Joseph Pham, Katie Newman and Joseph share a few laughs and a hug.

Senior Helen Vela gives her rose to junior Ricky Carrasco.

The class of 2005 continues the Ring and Rose tradition and sings "The Rose" at the ceremony.

The Lord of the Rings

"It began with the forging of the Great Rings."

Senior Andrew Daehne passes down the gavel, one of the gifts representing the school, to junior Caroline Nye.

The age of the seniors is over and the time of the juniors has come. An era has ended and the juniors "shall be the fellowship of the Ring" and be the leaders of the school as they continue on the seniors' legacy and complete their journey through high school.

Junior Katrina Co and senior Lauren Baber continue down the aisle during the Ring and Rose ceremony.

Seniors Jeanette Rivera and Eleanor Seger present their rose to junior Sarah Saenz.

The Graduate

Graduation is a time for seniors to figure out who they are, open their eyes to the real world, and begin a new journey in life. After twelve years of being in school, the hard work has finally paid off.

While receiving his diploma, Joon Kim shakes hands with Bishop Edmond Carmody.

Bishop Edmond Carmody blesses the graduating senior class with Holy Water.

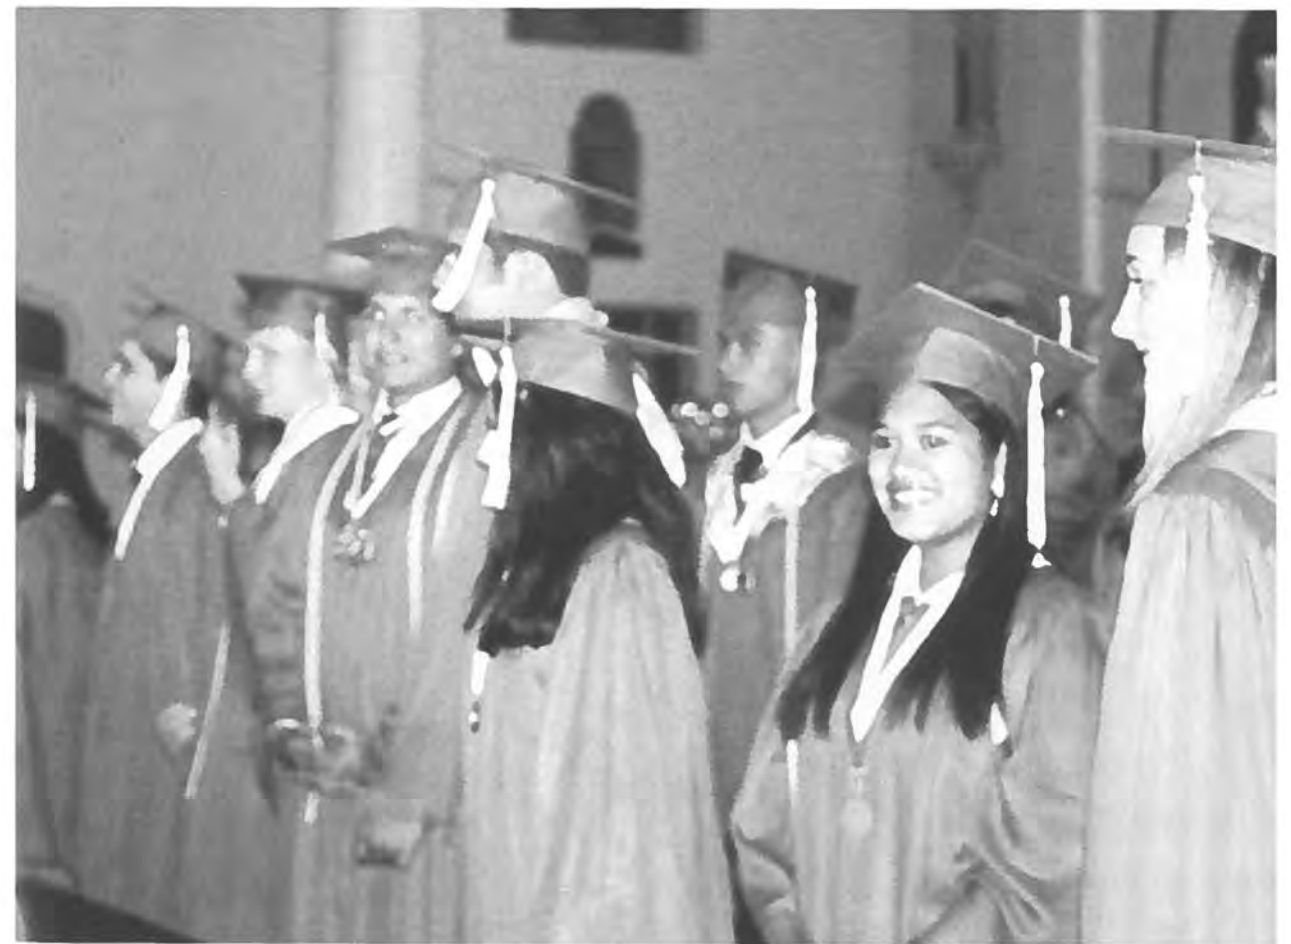

Salutatorian Sabrina Imam presents her speech and encourages the seniors to continue their good work.

Mr. Gerald Lugaresi honors valedictorian Andrew Daehne for his accomplishments.

Eleanor Seger receives her diploma from Bishop Edmond Carmody and Sister Anna Marie Espinosa.

The Incarnate Word graduates of 2005 stand to be recognized by their proud family, faculty, and friends.

"Blessings for Daughter"

Many years in time long ago,
The day, that God gave me you.
I got a precious gift indeed,
Blessed me many years through.

But, years seem to pass so rapidly,
For it seems as if, only yesterday,
Your little frame, was in my arms.
Yet see how you've grown today.

As you journey ever through life,
We wish, the very best for you,
Life be filled with joy and peace
And countless dreams come true.

Today you may well have grown up,
But in my heart, you will always be,
My special tiny little Baby Girl,
The one, that God above gave to me.

The very best of our Blessings
To Guide Your Path, all the way,
Love and warmth to comfort you,
From Sunrise to Sunset every day.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Desiree, and Donella

YOUNG LADY AND WE THANK GOD FOR YOU.*

*LOVE, MOM, DAD, JOHNNY,

CONGRATULATIONS

MOST SENIOR PARENTS WOULD AGREE THAT THEIR STUDENTS HAVE COME A LONG WAY SINCE THEY WERE IN DIAPERS, JUST LEARNING HOW TO WALK.

IT HAS BEEN A JOURNEY FULL OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND HARD WORK, BUT THE SENIORS ARE GLAD SCHOOL IS FINALLY OVER. ALTHOUGH THEY HAVE GROWN INTO A FAMILY THAT IS VERY CLOSE, THEY LOOK FOWARD TO SEEING THEIR CLASSMATES SUCCEED.

THANK GOD IT'S FINALLY OVER! I'LL ADMIT THAT I DID ENJOY MAKING THE YEARBOOK BUT THERE WERE SOME TIMES WHEN I JUST WISHED IT WOULD ALL END. STRESSFUL DEADLINES, ALWAYS HAVING TO TAKE PICTURES AT EVERY SCHOOL EVENT, BEING ABLE TO WRITE CHEESY COPY, STAYING AFTER SCHOOL...IT TAKES A LOT OUT OF YOU...WELL NOT A LOT BUT IT DOES REQUIRE A LOT OF TIME. NOW IT'S OVER AND I HATE TO SAY THAT I'LL MISS NOT HAVING THIS CLASS AND WORKING WITH EVERYONE. WE ALL WORKED VERY HARD AND THIS BOOK WOULD NEVER HAVE BEEN FINISHED IF IT WEREN'T FOR ALL THE BRILLIANT MINDS IN THE 8TH PERIOD YEARBOOK CLASS. I ESPECIALLY WANT TO THANK SARA TREVIÑO FOR HELPING ME SO MUCH AND STAYING AFTER SCHOOL COUNTLESS TIMES TO WORK, AND TO THE 8TH PERIOD YEARBOOK CLASS, I WISH YOU ALL GOOD LUCK FOR WHATEVER MAY COME IN THE FUTURE.

Aurora Volume 81 is the creation of the Incarnate Word Academy High School yearbook staff and advisor. Any opinions in this book do not necessarily represent the opinions of IWA High School.

The cover is silk screened with five colors. The end sheets are white. The 75/8 x 10 3/4 book was printed by Herff-Jones Publishing Company. Approximate cost of printing this book is $10,348.20 with approximately 300 books printed.

The staff chose to use a number of fonts this year, including but not limited to the following: AHJ Platnum Blonde, AHJ Beat, AHJ Kendric, AHJ Platz Cond, Times New Roman, MicroSquare in a variety of tpestyles and point sizes.

Students used Pagemaker 6.5 to create the pages. Pages were submitted to Herff-Jones on CD.
