Payroll and Benefit News

May 2023

Summer Checks

For those employees receiving summer checks, you can expect them by end of business day on June 16th. All your usual deductions will be deducted from the gross amount. Please note that the health insurance employee premium will be higher. For more details, read the Health Insurance Payroll Deduction section below.

Health Insurance Payroll Deduction

The employee health insurance premium percentage remains at 20% of the monthly cost, however; the monthly premium has increased. Employees utilizing the health insurance benefit can look for their chosen plan and see the following increases on the Admin -> Human Resources -> Human Resources Forms -> Health section of the WCUUSD website.

FSA – Eligible Expenses

The below link will bring you to a link to My Money Further where you can find a list of eligible FSA expenses. Please note that vitamins are not eligible unless the member has a letter of Medical Necessity completed by their health care provider. You can find a copy of the letter necessity form to give your provider on this site as well. Eligible FSA Expenses
