- Clothes must cover shoulders, chest, and abdomens, and skirts/dressers or shorts must be knee length.
- Students should wear shoes or trainers. Flip-flops or sliders are not to be worn.
- Make-up and jewellery standards apply unless the event requires it, such as house events.
- No offensive, rude or inappropriate language or logos.

Students who are inappropriately dressed may be asked to change, isolated from lessons/breaks until suitable clothing is brought to school or sent home.

Hair

Long hair, during relevant activities and as instructed by the teacher, must be tied

Make-up and nail varnish

Secondary students are permitted to wear discreet make-up and clear nail varnish. 6th form students are permitted to wear any nail varnish.

Students may wear a watch or similar fitness-tracking device on their wrist and a single charity bracelet or small friendship bracelet. Students may wear one set of plain small stud type 'sleepers' unless in the 6th Form where they are permitted to wear two sets of plain small stud type 'sleepers'.

No rings, bracelets, necklaces, or any other visible jewellery, apart from discreet jewellery worn for religious reasons, are permitted unless in the 6th Form. 6th Form students are permitted to wear a ring, a bracelet, and a necklace.

Visible body piercings or tattoos are not permitted for any student.

Shirts

Students are allowed to wear plain white vests / round-necked T-shirts underneath their uniform. Shirts should not be tucked in.
