LIBERTY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 25 NAMES DR. CORT MONROE PERMANENT SUPERINTENDENT

BUCKEYE (November 14, 2023) – Liberty Elementary School District Governing Board voted to approve Dr. Cort Monroe as permanent Superintendent at the November 13 board meeting, removing the role of Interim.

"Dr. Monroe is what this district has needed for many years, a leader who is committed to staff and students' success, growth, and has a passion for education. A leader who can lead from the front or behind. A leader who is committed to positioning our district in a positive position. I consider us fortunate to have found Dr. Monroe and to be able to retain him as our permanent Superintendent," said LESD25 Governing Board President Michael Todd.

Dr. Monroe has served as LESD25 Interim Superintendent since May after an extensive career in education having been a Teacher, Principal, Assistant Superintendent and Superintendent.

"I feel very grateful and excited to be named the permanent Superintendent of the Liberty Elementary School District. I look forward to working with the Governing Board, leaders, teachers, staff, families and our community for the success of all our students at all our schools. I believe that together we can truly prepare all students for success in high school and beyond to achieve individual accomplishment, personal leadership, and contribution to their community," said Dr. Monroe.
