

FASHION SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

All individuals applying for a scholarship must:

1. Complete the entire application form.
2. Attach to the application form an up-to-date set of transcripts from your present school.
3. Provide one double-spaced, typed page explaining your future educational and career goals.
4. Submit a portfolio containing examples of your work with a double-spaced, typed page explaining the contents of this portfolio.

PORTFOLIO FOR FASHION DESIGN STUDENTS:

Should contain examples of your work, such as original, designed garments, photographs and /or drawings of your original designs.

PORTFOLIO FOR FASHION OR VISUAL MERCHANDISING STUDENTS:

Should contain examples of your work, such as drawing or photographs of store windows or interior display based on your original theme and reflecting the store image and merchandise.

PORTFOLIO FOR FASHION ILLUSTRATION OR RELATED AREA:

Should contain examples of your work, such as original fashion illustrations or graphic artwork illustrating your original ideas.

The specific contents of your portfolio should reflect your original creative ideas. The suggestions listed above are just a few ideas of types of material your portfolio could contain.

Scholarship winners will be determined on the following bases:

1. Portfolio content and application information.
2. Scholarship, especially in fashion and related areas.
3. Leadership and/or participation in activities.
4. Personal qualities to be determined during an interview, which will be required of all semi-finalists.

Completed applications and portfolios must be submitted no later than Saturday, April 13, 2024.
