

As an early high school graduate, the Path4Ward program may provide you with scholarships to pursue college classes, workforce training, or other certificate programs to prepare for life after high school graduation.

Eligible early graduates can receive thousands of dollars to put toward their future.

HOW MUCH MONEY DO I GET?

If you graduate a full year early: $4,113    If you graduate a half year early: $2,468

HOW CAN I USE THIS MONEY?

> College courses anywhere in Colorado

- community college
- Colorado public university or college
- technical college

> Workforce training or certificate program

700+ training providers in Colorado to pursue any skills, industry, or job you're interested in! Example programs:

- A Plus Real Estate School
- Colorado Crane Operator School
- Colorado Trucking College
- CompTIA Tech Career Academy
- Empire Beauty School
- Superior Coding Academy
- Voyager Nursing Aide Program

> Other costs related to your postsecondary plans

For example:

- Transportation
- Textbooks
- Equipment for a culinary program
- New computer for college classes or coding program
- Tools for trade program like welding, plumbing, or aircraft mechanic

explore all program options:

HOW DO I SIGN UP?

Let your counselor know you're interested! They will connect you with program staff.

