

BWL BENEFIT & AUCTION

Your donated item or service would make a difference—to us and to you!

Birch Wathen Lenox is an independent, co-ed, K-12, college preparatory school on the UES in NYC. The School is committed to a rigorous academic program but at the same time incorporates innovative programs to provide a unique educational experience.

Auction proceeds go to support STEM initiatives, including renovating the Science Lab and adding a hydroponic garden. Each of our 300+ students will benefit from this!

BWL relies on generous community members like you for support. Thank you!

All donations are tax-deductible.

MARCH 5, 2024

For you:

- Showcase your business to people who live, work, eat, shop, and play on the UES and all around Manhattan.
- Your donated item will be viewed by 200+ people live at the event and close to 4,000 people remotely.
