

Supporting information – Brass Teacher

Staffing

In addition to the Director of Music, there are three full time/part time teachers in the Junior/Senior School. There are 21 self-employed visiting music teachers and a part-time Administrator. All visiting music staff play as full a part in the school as their commitments allow.

Facilities

The Music Department is housed in a stunning purpose-built facility. This includes a performance auditorium seating 240, nine teaching and rehearsal rooms, two classrooms, including an Apple mac suite as well as a separate recording studio.

Activities and Concerts

In the Senior School the following rehearse weekly:

The Choristers, the Chamber Choir, the Barbershop, Orchestra, Lower Schol Band, Rock Band, Ukulele Club, String Group, Jazz Band and Swing Band, as well as chamber ensembles.

The Junior School has an orchestra, choirs and various chamber ensembles.

A Choral Society of parents, friends and staff rehearses weekly throughout the term and supports the musical life of the School.

The Music department holds a wide range of ensemble performances and concerts each year and pupils regularly join with professional musicians to perform. There is a regular programme of termly concerts in school and performances have also been given at venues such as St Michael's, West Croydon, Fairfield Halls, Hilton Hotel, Croydon and St John's Church, Shirley. The various choirs sing full Choral Evensong or Mass settings on some Sunday evenings in the School Chapel service.

The Music Department has strong ties with the Drama Department who are located on the floor below. Each year they collaborate to put on a school musical.

Pupils are regularly invited to attend the National Youth Orchestra, National Youth Choir and National Children's Orchestra. Most years see pupils audition for choral awards at Oxbridge Colleges.
